TABLE OF CONTENTS

	Page
Contributors	vii
Foreword	ix
Acknowledgements	xi
Introduction	1
Globalization: It's Impact on the African Nations' Media Systems – The Case of Kenya – Mustafa Y Ali	5
Ethical Journalism: Individual Challenge and Collective Responsibility – Karen Sanders	37
Media and the Common Good: Seeking the Truth and Reporting it – Elizabeth W Gachenga	49
Freedom of the Media in Kenya – Charles N Kanjama	57
The Media, Truth and Human Dignity – Catherine Dean	77
Media and Responsibility – Oketch Kendo	89
Media and the Family: Reflections of a Mother – Maximillia Muninzwa	97
The Media in Kenya: A Human Rights Context – Maina Kiai	103
Why the Media Doesn't 'Get' Religion – Don Feder	111
Framing the Constitutional Referendum of 2005: Did the Media Serve the Common Good? – Peter Oriare	119
The Legal Implications of Libel in Kenya – PLO Lumumba	137
Media Language: Serving the Common Good – Martyn Drakard	151
Responsible Journalism and Promotion of the Common Good in Kenya: A Philosophical Appraisal – Michael Ntabo Mabururu and Philip Musi Nyongesa	161