Contents

Abbreviations XI

Jürgen Basedow
Welcome Address 1

A. Perspectives of Civil Law in Eastern Europe – Policy Issues 5

Rainer Kulms
Optimistic Normativism after Two Decades of Legal Transplants and Autonomous Developments 7

Michel Nussbaumer and Frederique Dahan
Promoting Legal Reform in Eastern Europe: the EBRD Approach 15

Thomas Meyer
Social Market Economy Values in Legal Reform Projects in South East Europe (SEE) 41

B. Civil Law – General Aspects 63

Alexander Komarov
Development of Private Law on Contracts in the Russian Federation 65

Volodymyr Kossak
General Principles of Private Law in Ukraine 87

Jelena Perović
Contract Law in Serbia 93

Camelia Toader
Contract Law in Romania 109

Verica Trstenjak
Private Law Developments in Slovenia – a European Perspective 123

Christian Takoff
Private Law in Bulgaria 149

C. Property Law Aspects – South-Eastern Europe 169

Tatjana Josipović
Property Law Reform in Croatia Between Legal Transplants and Autonomous Development 171

Meliha Povlakić
Property Law in Bosnia and Herzegovina 205

Dušan Nikolić
Property Law in Serbia: Both Autonomous Legal Development and Legal Transplant 237

D. Company Law in Eastern Europe 269

Mirko Vasiljević
The Serbian Law on Commercial Companies 271

Alexandra Makovskaya
Russian Company and Capital Market Law 295

Oleg Zaitsev
2009: Russian Corporate Legislation Reform Continues and Has to Be Continued 315

Ionuț Rădulețu
Recent Company Law Developments in the European Union 331

Tania Bouzeva
Company Law in Bulgaria 351

Radu N. Catană
Romanian Company Law: Recent Evolution Between Autonomous Development and Legal Transplants 373

András Kisfaludi
Company Law in Hungary 417

Krzysztof Oplustil and Arkadiusz Radwan
Company Law in Poland: Between Autonomous Development and Legal Transplants 445

Contributors 495

Multilateral Agreements and European Union Law 497