TABLE OF CONTENTS

Page

Acknowledgments.....ii
Select list of Legislation.....iii
Select list of cases.....iv
TABLE OF CONTENTS.....v
THE TANZANIA LEGAL SYSTEM: STRENGTHS AND CHALLENGES.....1
1. INTRODUCTION.....1
1.1 General Remarks.....1
1.2 The issues and Basic Principles.....1
2. THE ISSUES IN CONTEXT OF ETHICAL CONSIDERATIONS.....3
2.1 Introductory Observations.....3
2.2 Moral Principles–Ethical Considerations.....4
2.3 Corollary Principles Pertaining to Good Governance Justice and Peace.....8
2.3.1 Introductory Comments.....8
2.3.2 Transparency (Truth and Honesty) Principle.....8
2.3.3 Accountability/Responsibility Principle.....9
2.3.4 Integrity Principle.....10
2.3.5 Principle of 'Checks-and-Balances' or Separation of Powers.....12
3. THE TANZANIA LEGAL SYSTEM AS CASE OF REFERENCE.....22
3.1 General Observations.....22
3.2 The Legislature.....23
3.2.1 'Supremacy of Parliament' principle Vs. 'Party Supremacy'.....23
3.2.2 Legislature – Executive Unholy Collaboration: 'Yoking' the under privileged, Loading privileges on the 'over-privileged'?.....30
3.2.3 Retention of 'Bad Laws', Distortion of 'Good Laws'.....31
3.2.4 Corruption of the Law Maker?.....32
3.2.5 Disabilities and Incapacities: Parliamentary Committee Syste.....34
3.2.6 Attempts at Reform.....37
3.3 The Executive/Administration.....39
3.3.1 Introductory Observations.....39
3.3.2 Bureaucratic red-tapism and confidentiality/secrecy – The system's 'inherent vice'.....39
3.3.3 Policy and Parliamentary Draftsmanship Procedures.....40

3.3.4 Disabilities and Incapacities....42
3.3.5 Favoritisms and Nepotism?....43
3.3.6 Civil Service Reform....46
3.4 The Judiciary....47
3.4.1 Introductory Observation....47
3.4.2 Principle of Independence of the Judiciary and Rule of Law....47
3.4.3 Administrative and Legal Procedural Aspects....51
3.4.4 Truth, Justice and Fairness Hanging in Balance?....53
3.4.5 'Legalism and Judicialism', a Cover-up of Corruption?....54
3.4.6 Disabilities and Incapacities and Attempted Reforms....55
3.4.7 Restorative vs Retributive Justice: Towards an alternative Orientation....57
4. GENERAL CONCLUSION AND RECOMMENDATIONS....60
4.1 General Conclusion....60
4.2 General Recommendations/Challenges....61
4.2.1 The following challenges require serious positive action from all responsible persons in our Political Community and the relevant offices, officers and bodies within the Political Authority (the three major state organs)....61
SELECT BIBLIOGRAPHY....65