Introduction 7

Part One
Religious and ethnic dimensions of Myanmar NGOs 11

1 - Myanmar NGOs: a multifaceted civil society dominated by ethnic and faith based organisations 14
1.1 - Methodology of the study 17
1.2 - Religious and ethnic trends framing Myanmar NGOs and solidarity networks 28

2 - Religion and ethnicity in Myanmar NGOs: Historical factors and contemporary facts 42
2.1 - From the first modern professional NGOs to the emergence of a Myanmar civil society 43
2.2 - Cyclone Nargis: disaster or opportunity for Myanmar NGOs? 50

Part Two
Myanmar NGOs: support to the regime or roots of the opposition? 61

1 - How powerful are Myanmar NGOs? 64
1.1 - What are the sources of power and legitimacy for NGOs? 65
1.2 - Are changes at higher, central levels possible? 72

2 - NGOs as actors of the decentralization at local level: case studies in the Kachin State 77
2.1 - Case studies of two Kachin NGOs 81
2.2 - Personal trajectories: from NGOs involvement to political activism 87

3 - The role(s) of NGOs in a political transition 93
3.1 - Individual perceptions and NGOs' politics 95
3.2 - "No word, no confrontation" 101

Conclusion 109

Bibliography 113