Summary of Contents

Foreword v

Paul Heath

From the New Zealand Law Foundation vii

Warwick Deuchrass

Preface ix

List of Contributors xi

Table of Contents xvii

Table of Cases xxix

Table of Statutes xxxv

Chapter 1: Introduction 1

Susy Frankel and John Yeabsley

Part 1: Certainty, Legitimacy and the Rule of Law

Chapter 2: Public Participation and Regulation 21

Mark Bennett and Joel Colón-Ríos

Chapter 3: Competition Law and Policy 71

Paul G Scott

Chapter 4: Does the Use of General Anti-Avoidance Rules to Combat Tax Avoidance Breach Principles of the Rule of Law? A Comparative Study 93

Rebecca Prebble and John Prebble

Part 2: Property Rights

Chapter 5: Regulatory Reform and Property Rights in New Zealand 127

Richard Boast and Neil Quigley

Chapter 6: Possibilities and Pitfalls of Comparative Analysis of Property Rights Protections, and the Canadian Regime of Legal Protection Against Takings 145

Russell Brown

Part 3: The Policy and Process of Regulation

Chapter 7: Regulatory Management in New Zealand: What, How and Why? 173

Derek Gill

Chapter 8: Review and Appeal of Regulatory Decisions: The Tension between Supervision and Performance 215

Rayner Thwaites and Dean Knight

Chapter 9: Rights and Regulation 241

Petra Butler

Chapter 10: Consumer Law and Paternalism: A Framework for Policy Decision-Making 267

Kate Tokeley

Part 4: Sector Specific Regulation

Chapter 11: The Regulation of Consumer Credit Products: The Effects of Baseline Assumptions 295

Graeme Austin

Chapter 12: Regulating the Building Industry – A Case of Regulatory Failure 311

Brent Layton

Chapter 13: Network Industries: Electricity and Telecommunications 339

Alec Mladenovic

Part 5: Trade and Investment

Chapter 14: The Challenges and Opportunities of Conformity in the Wider Asia – Pacific Context: Tiny Steps on a Long Road 367

Chris Nixon and John Yeabsley

Chapter 15: Trade Agreements and Regulatory Autonomy: The Effect on National Interests 411

Susy Frankel and Meredith Kolsky Lewis

Chapter 16: Regulating Foreign Investment in New Zealand 445

Daniel Kalderimis

Part 6: The Trans-Tasman Relationship

Chapter 17: Australia New Zealand Therapeutic Products Authority: Lessons from the Deep End of Trans-Tasman Integration 491

Chris Nixon and John Yeabsley

Chapter 18: Trans-Tasman Intellectual Property Coordination 527

Susy Frankel and Megan Richardson

Index 555