Table of Contents

Foreword ix
Johannes Houwink ten Cate and Harmen van der Wilt

Raphael Lemkin (1900-1959) and the Genocide Convention of 1948. Brief Biographical and Bibliographical Notes xi
Jeroen Vervliet

About the Authors xvii

Keynote Addresses xxi

General 1

1. Genocide and Crimes against Humanity: Clarifying the Relationship 3
William Schabas

2. The Drafting and Development of the 1948 Convention on Genocide and the Politics of International Law 15
Matthew Lippman

3. Understanding the Milošević Case: Legacy of an Unfinished Trial 27
Nena Tromp

Procedure and Substance 39

4. Between Hate Speech and Mass Murder: How to Recognize Incitement to Genocide 41
Harmen van der Wilt

5. The Meaning of the Word "Destroy" and its Implications for the Wider Understanding of the Concept of Genocide 51
Larissa van den Herik

6. Criminologically Explained Reality of Genocide, Structure of the Offence and the 'Intent to Destroy' Requirement 59
Kai Ambos

7. Defending the 'Undefendable'? Taking Judicial Notice of Genocide 81
Göran Sluiter and Koen Vriend

Victims 95

8. Compensating Victims of Genocide 97
Liesbeth Zegveld

9. Why Compensation is a Mixed Blessing 105
Selma Leydesdorff

10. Some Measure of Justice. The Holocaust Era Restitution Campaign of the 1990s 115
Michael Marrus

Denial 143

11. On the Outlawing of Genocide Denial 145
Johannes Houwink ten Cate

12. Les Fleurs du Mal, The Need to Confront Holocaust Distortion 159
Hagen Fleischer

Countries 171

13. The United States and the Genocide Convention: The Sovereignty Package in Perspective 173
Lawrence LeBlanc

14. The Soviet Perspective on the Drafting of the UN Genocide Convention 187
Anton Weiss-Wendt

Archives 199

15. Truths, Memories and Histories in the Archives of the International Criminal Tribunal for the Former Yugoslavia 201
Eric Ketelaar

16. Truths, Memories and Historians in the Archives of the International Criminal Tribunal for the Former Yugoslavia 223
Robert Donia

Education 229

17. Sixty Years UN Genocide Convention – New Challenges for Genocide Education 231
Martin Mennecke

18. Genocide and Education 247
Dirk Mulder

Appendix 253

If the Whole Body Dies: Raphael Lemkin and the Treaty Against Genocide
Robert Skloot