Contents

List of figures vii
List of abbreviations viii
Acknowledgements xi
Table of cases xiii

Introduction 1
1. Economic and social integration 6
   I. Introduction 6
   II. Towards a societal perspective on the EU and its law 6
   III. Economic integration 13
   IV. Social integration 30
   V. Interconnection of economic and social integration 49
   VI. Conclusion 51
2. EU constitutional law 53
   I. Introduction 53
   II. National constitutions 53
   III. Beyond states: from constitutions to constitutional law 60
   IV. EU constitutional law 64
   V. Economic and social integration and EU constitutional law 74
   VI. Conclusion and outlook 76
3. The trajectory of EU constitutional law 79
   I. Introduction 79
   II. Rights protection and types of constitutionalism 80
   III. European fields of collective and democratic rule-making 106
   IV. Conclusion 111
4. The EU's judicial constitution after Enlargement 113
   I. Introduction and methodological approach 113
   II. Rights protection post Eastern Enlargement 116
   III. Democratic/collective rule-making post Enlargement 200
   IV. Conclusion 210

5. Economic and social integration under the EU's normative constitution 215
I. Introduction 215
II. The EU's values, objectives and general orientation 215
III. Constitution of competences 224
IV. Frictions and closing gaps 229
V. Conclusion: towards a constitution of social governance 242

Bibliography 244
Appendix: Documentation of case law analysis 275
Index 299