Table of Contents

vii Foreword
Teresa S. Encarnacion Tadem

xi Acknowledgments

xiii Introduction
Maria Ela L. Atienza

1 State, Patronage, and Local Elites
Francisco A. Magno

19 Beyond Patron-Client Relations: Warlordism and Local Politics in the Philippines
John T. Sidel

41 The Robredo Style: Philippine Local Politics in Transition
Takeshi Kawanaka

71 The State and Industrial Transformation: Comparative and Local Insights
Temario C. Rivera

93 The Philippines: The Weak State and the Global War on Terror
Herman Joseph S. Kraft

113 Muslim Perspective of the Mindanao Problem: Contextualizing the SPCPD
Abraham P. Sakili

130 Culture, Social Science, and the Conceptualization of the Philippine Nation-State
Raul Pertierra

150 Redemocratization in the Wake of the 1986 People Power Revolution: Errors and Dilemmas
Randolf S. David

164 Toward Understanding Coups and Civilian-Military Relations
Carolina G. Hernandez

170 Democracy and the Philippine Left
Olle Törnquist

220 A Changed Terrain for Popular Struggles
Alexander R. Magno

239 Notes on the Contributors

241 About the Editors