Table of Contents

Table of Contents iii
Foreword
Suripto (LESPERSSI) v
Philipp Fluri (DCAF) vii

Introduction - Almanac on Indonesian Security Sector Reform 2009 : Ten Years of Security Sector Reform
Beni Sukadis 1

The Presidency and Security Sector Reform
Yuliah Qotimah 5

Relative Autonomy, Interdependency and Change at the Ministry of Defense
Kusnanto Anggoro 26

Parliamentary Oversight of Security Sector Reform
Yusa Djuyandi and Suryama M. Sastra 37

The Long Road to Reform of the Indonesian Armed Forces (TNI)
Al Araf 48

The Army's Special Forces (Kopassus)
Galih Imaduddin 71

Kostrad
Aris Santoso 85

The Republic of Indonesia Fleet: Today and Tomorrow
Alman H. Ali 98

The Marine Corps
Fauzan Djamaluddin 108

The Strategic Intelligence Agency (BAIS)
Rizal Darma Putra 121

Reform of the Indonesian National Police
S. Yunanto 129

The Mobile Brigade of the Police of the Republic of Indonesia: Towards a Professional and Democratic Paramilitary Unit of the Police
Muradi 153

Quo Vadis Special Detachment 88 Anti Terror Unit—Indonesian Police
Eko Maryadi 166

BAINTELKAM: The Political Burden of Security Intelligence
Edwin Partogi 181

Observing the Role of Security Actors in Keeping the Peace in Aceh and Poso
Oslan Purba 203

The Diplomacy of Bon Voisinage and Law Enforcement in Indonesian Border Management
Shiskha Prabawaningtyas 224

Civil Society Organisations and Security Sector Reform
Mufti Makaarim A 241

Indonesian Security Sector Legislative Reform 2008–2009: Reformation without Direction
Bhatara Ibnu Reza 256

List of Contributors 286

List of Acronyms 290

Institution Profile
Lesperssi 294
DCAF 295