Table of Contents

Introduction 15

PART I
THE NATURE OF CONSTITUTIONAL SOCIAL AND ECONOMIC RIGHTS 21

Chapter 1
Characteristics of Socio-Economic Rights 23

1.1 Approaching Socio-Economic Rights 23

1.1.1 Scope of Socio-Economic Rights 26

1.1.2 Internal Components 30

1.2 Nature of Socio-Economic Rights 32

1.2.1 Legal Aspects 32

1.2.2 Political Dimension 36

1.2.3 Economic Reasons 38

1.2.4 Moral Justifications 39

Chapter 2
Is There a Need for Socio-Economic Rights Constitutionalisation? 40

2.1 Are Socio-Economic Rights and Constitutions Compatible at All? 41

2.2 Justiciability of Constitutional Rights and Constitutional Duties 43

2.3 Characteristic of Constitutional Social Rights and Freedoms – post-transitional example 48

2.3.1 Claim rights v. capability rights 49

2.3.2 Social rights as fundamental rights 50

2.3.3 Enforceability of social rights 53

2.3.4 Limitations to social constitutional rights 54

2.3.5 Essence of social rights and axiology of the Constitution 57

PART II
SOCIO-ECONOMIC RIGHTS' CONSTITUTIONALISATION IN POLAND, THE CZECH REPUBLIC AND SLOVAKIA 61

Chapter 3
Constitutional Debates: Similarities and Differences 63

3.1 Socio-Economic Rights Debated 64

3.1.1 Who?- Composition and Role of Political Elites in Constitution Drafting 65

3.1.2 When and How?- Time and Length of Constitutional Debates 70

3.1.3 Where and Where From?- Structure and Reference to the Constitutional Text 72

3.1.4 What did we come with?- Results of Constitutional Debates 75

3.2 Placing Limits on Socio-Economic Constitutional Rights 78

3.3 Constitutional Mechanisms of Enforcement of Socio-Economic Rights 83

3.3.1 Leading/Prevailing Role of Constitutional Courts 83

3.3.2 Ombudsmen- Bringing Constitution Closer to the Individual 84

3.3.3 Other Constitutional Bodies- Special Control Actors 90

Chapter 4
Substantial Change in The Meaning of Socio-Economic Rights 93

4.1 Modality of Rights' Constitutional Formulation 93

4.1.1 Constitutionalisation of Socio-Economic Rights 94

4.1.2 Justiciability and Constitutional Courts 96

4.2 Substantial Change of Socio-Economic Rights' Meaning 97

Chapter 5
Constitutional Socio-Economic Jurisprudence in Selected Matters 101

5.1 Right to Health Care 101

5.1.1 Health as Individual Constitutional Right 103

5.1.2 Health as Social Human Right 105

5.1.3 Constitutional Rights to Health (Care)- Comparative Perspective.....106

5.2 Right to Social Security According to Constitutional Jurisprudence-Comparative Perspective.....113

5.3 Right to Education.....119

5.3.1 Constitutional Right to Education- Comparative Perspective.....121

5.3.2 The Right to Education According to Constitutional Jurisprudence- Comparative Perspective.....123

PART III
PROTECTION AND PROMOTION OF SOCIAL AND ECONOMIC RIGHTS. EXCLUSSIVENESS VERSUS INCLUSSIVENESS OF DIFFERENT STATE ACTORS.....137

Chapter 6
Inter-Institutional Constitutional Dialogue in Socio-Economic Cases.....139

6.1 The Theory of Constitutional Dialogue.....141

6.1.1 General Account of the Inter-Institutional Dialogue and the Last Word Theories.....147

6.2 The Vision of Socio-Economic Constitutional Dialogue-Country Perspectives.....149

CONCLUSIONS.....153

Literature.....161