Table of Contents

About the Authors ix

Foreword xvii

Acknowledgments xix

List of Abbreviations xxi

Introduction 1

PART I
Brazilian Competition Policy: History, Basis, and Focus 7

CHAPTER 1
Brief History of the Brazilian Competition Law and Policy 9
§1.01 Formation of Competition Rules in Brazil 10
§1.02 Relationship between the Disciplines of Conduct and that of Structures 14
§1.03 Control of Conducts in the Legal and in the Economic Theories 16
[A] The Harvard School and the Chicago School 16
[B] Brief Comments on the Freiburg School 20
[C] Distinction between Per Se Rule and Rule of Reason and Comments on Exemption Practices and Authorizations 21
§1.04 Social Welfare and Antitrust Violation 25

CHAPTER 2
The Methodology for the Antitrust Analysis 31
§2.01 Relevant Market 32
§2.02 Market Share and Market Power 36
§2.03 Likelihood for Market Power Exercise 38

[A] Barriers to Entry 38
[B] Rivalry 41
[C] Economic Efficiencies 43

CHAPTER 3
Control of Structures (Merger Control) 47
§3.01 Legal Provisions 47
[A] Penalties for Violations to Merger Control Provisions 50
[1] Gun Jumping 52
§3.02 Economic Group according to Case Law and Regulation 54
§3.03 Concentration Acts 56
§3.04 Thresholds, Filing Forms, Procedures, and Decisions 60
[A] Thresholds 60
[B] Merger Filing Forms and Special Conditions 61
[1] Transactions Involving a Public Offering 62
[2] Preliminary Clearance and Tacit Approval 62
[C] Procedures 62
[D] Remedies According to the Case Law 65
[1] Veto (Rejection) 65
[2] Partial Approval (Partial Clearance) 69
[3] Full Approval (Clearance) 70
[4] Concentration Control Agreement (ACC) 71
[5] Theories and Arguments for Approvals 72
[a] Falling Firm and Falling Division 74
[b] Declining Markets 75
[c] Compensatory Power 77

CHAPTER 4
Control of Behaviours (Antitrust Violations) 79
§4.01 The Legal Provisions 79
[A] Penalties for Antitrust Violations 83
§4.02 Liability under the Antitrust Law 88
§4.03 Abuse of Dominant Position 90
[A] Abusive or Excessive Pricing 91
[B] Discrimination 92
[C] Raising Rivals Costs 95
[1] Sham Litigation 95
[2] Creating Difficulties for Rivals 97
[D] Predatory Pricing 98
[E] Promotional Policies 100
[F] Tying 101
[G] Exclusive Dealing 102
[H] Bonus, Rebates, and Loyalty Programmes 104
[I] Price-Squeeze and Margin-Squeeze (or Profit-Squeeze) 106

[J] Refusal to Deal 108
[K] Resale Price Fixing and Resale Price Maintenance 109
§4.04 Agreements among Competitors 113
[A] Restrictive Agreements: Cartels 114
[1] Concepts and Types 115
[2] Cartel as Criminal and Administrative Offences 119
[3] Conditions for Cartel's Success (from Players' Logic Perspective) 121
[4] Appreciation of Evidence (from Antitrust Authorities' Perspective) 123
[5] Market Power Assessment 124
[6] Price Leadership 127
[7] Parallelism of Conduct 130
[8] International Cartels 135
[9] International Hard Core Cartels 146
[10] Formation and Identification 149
[B] Collaboration among Competitors 154
[1] The EU and the US Experiences in the Brazilian Context 157
[2] Information Exchange 158
[3] Research and Development 163
[4] General Commercial Conditions 164
[5] Concluding Remarks 164

PART II
Global Competition Policy 167

CHAPTER 5
Multilateral and International Plans 169
§5.01 OECD 171
[A] A Few Considerations about Soft Laws 173
[B] OECD Recommendations 174
§5.02 UNCTAD 177
[A] UNCTAD and Competition 179
§5.03 WTO 185
[A] Competition in the WTO 187
[B] Proposals of Action 189
§5.04 International Competition Network (ICN) 191
[A] The ICN and Cartels 197

CHAPTER 6
Bilateral, Regional and National Scopes 203
§6.01 Cooperation Agreements 206
[A] Positive Comity and Negative Comity 207
§6.02 Introduction to Competition in MERCOSUR 210

§6.03 Current Scenario of the Policy against Hard Core Cartels in Brazil 215
[A] The Brazilian Experience with Cooperation 215
[1] Investigation of the Lysine Cartel 216
[2] Investigation of the Vitamins Cartel 217
[3] Investigation of the Alleged Toilet Paper Cartel: A National Case with International Cooperation 218
[4] Investigation into a Suspect Air Compressors Cartel 219

PART III
New Tools, Trends, and Challenges 221

CHAPTER 7
Tools and Incentives Available for Evidence/Proof Collection 223
§7.01 Leniency Agreements 223
[A] Requirements in Brazil 228
[B] Other Implications 233
§7.02 Cease and Desist Agreement (TCC) 234
§7.03 Inspection 241

CHAPTER 8
Private Damages 245
§8.01 The US and EU Experiences in the Brazilian Context 245
§8.02 The Brazilian Private Damages System 248
§8.03 First Cases 251

CHAPTER 9
Competition and Intellectual Property (IP) 253
§9.01 Brief Overview 253
§9.02 The Case Anfape versus Volkswagen Do Brasil et al. (Auto Parts Case) 255
§9.03 Competition and IP under a Comparative Approach (Brazil, US, and EU) 258
§9.04 Influence of the International Case Law 259
[A] EU Case Law 259
[1] Volvo versus Erik Veng (1988) 259
[2] BMW Nederland BV versus Ronald Karel Deenik (1997) 260
[3] Fiat versus ISAM (2000) 260
[4] RTE & ITP versus Commission: The Magill Case (1995) 261
[5] IMS Health versus NDC Health (2001) 261
[6] Microsoft Corp. versus Commission of the European Communities (2007) 262

[B] US Case Law 263
[1] Eastman Kodak co. versus Image Tech. Svcs. (1992) 263
§9.05 Safety Zones under a Comparative Approach (Brazil, US, and EU) 264

Concluding Remarks 267

PART IV
Case Studies 271

Introduction 273
Air Compressors (Investigation) 273
Bus Routes 276
Cable TV 281
Cement and Concrete (Investigation) 284
Civil Air Transportation 289
Fuel Retailers 294
Goiânia State 294
Santa Catarina State 299
Table of Cases of Fuel Retailers 305
Hydrogen Peroxides 308
Liquefied Petroleum Gas (LPG) 311
Federal District and Territories 311
Goiás State 315
Marine Hoses (Investigation) 323
Meat Companies 327
Medical and Industrial Gas 336
Discussion in Courts 339
Medical Services 339
Alagoas 339
Brasilia 342
Santos 345
Table of Cases of Medical Services 350
Medicine / Drugs 356
Non-brand (Generic) Medicine 356
Discussion in Courts 361
Paradigm 363
Vitamins 363
Petrobras' International Public Bid 365
Private Securities 369
Rubble 377
Steel 389
Deformed Steel Bars 389
Plane Steel 396
Toilet Paper 401

Bibliographic References 409

Table of Cases 429

Index 435