CONTENTS

Foreword, by Piero Bini and Gianfranco Tusset pag. 7

I. State and Market in the History of Economic Thought

Harnessing Self-Interest: Market and State in the History of Economic Thought, by Steven Medema » 13
The Theory and Practice of Antitrust: A Perspective in the History of Economic Ideas, by Michele Grillo » 40

II. Economic Policy and Knowledge

The Institutional Paradigm and the Relevance of Knowledge, by Michele Cangiani » 89
Public Policy, Embeddedness and the Double Movement, by Paolo Ramazzotti » 106
Practical Knowledge and Economic Policy: An Institutional Perspective, by Marco Rangone » 124
From the General Equilibrium Dynamics to the Political Economy: the Influence of the Austrian Tradition on Eraldo Fossati, by Mario Pomini » 146

III. Distribution and Poverty

From “Necessaries” and “Superfluities” to the Utility Function: The Problem of Distribution in the History of Economic Thought, by Ruggero Paladini and Alfredo Rinaldi Baccelli » 165
The Dawn of the Third Way: the Impact of Neo-Thomistic Thought on Political Economy, by Stefano Solari pag. 194

From Ignorance to Helplessness. The Position of Economic Policy towards Hunger during the 19th and 20th Century, by Andreas Exenberger » 211

IV. Monetary Policy and Banking

Between Harvard and Chicago: Jacob Viner and the New Deal Banking Reforms (1933-1935), by Sebastiano Nerozzi » 239

Controlling the Banking System in Italy, by Paola Parravicini » 267

Money, Credit, and Income Distribution: A Monetary Circuit Analysis, by Sergio Rossi » 283

V. Wage Policies

The Paduan Series of the “Journal of the Economists” (1876/1877): Léon Walras' Mathematical Applications and the Wage Laws by Alfredo Sensales » 309

Full Employment and the Left, by Tiziano Cavalieri, Pierangelo Garegnani and Mary Lucii » 334

VI. Current Issues

The “New” Economic Theories, by Helena Marques » 349

Innovation, Growth and Innovation Policies: Economic Theory at the Crossroad, by Ángel Rodríguez García-Brazales, Jorge Turmo Arnal, and Óscar Vara Crespo » 365

Clinton & Blair: The Economics of the Third Way, by Flavio Romano » 383

The “Clinton Boom:” On the Effectiveness of Macro Policies, by Davide Gualerzi » 395

‘Government Rationality’ and International Economic Policy Coordination, by Gianfranco Tusset » 411