

Contents

7	Acknowledgments		Elisabetta Marino
	Leonardo Buonomo	79	The Italian American Family between Past and Present: The Place I Call Home (2012) by Maria Mazziotti Gillan, and Mystics in the Family (2013) by Maria Famà
	Elisabetta Vezzosi
9	Introduction
	1. EMANCIPATION AND THE TEMPORALITY OF THE BODY
	Cristina Giorcelli	87	Sunn Shelley Wong Chronopoetics: Race, Time, and Narrative in Carlos Bulosan's America Is in the Heart
15	Did Apparel (Eighteen-eighties-Nineteen-twenties) Help American Women's Emancipation? A Socio-Literary Problematic Response	97	Stefano Luconi The "Land of the Free"? The United States in the Eyes of Italian American Radicals
	Marinella Rodi-Risberg
39	Trauma, Temporality, and Testimony in Carolivia Herron's Thereafter Johnnie	107	Perri Giovannucci Empathy in the Work of Richard Wright
	Angelo Capasso
47	Deposition, Decomposition. Losing the Body Sublime: Marina Abramović between Performance and Performativity	119	3. RADICALISM, EMANCIPATION, AND REVOLUTION Enrico Botta The Columbiad : Slavery, Imperialism and the Founding Fathers' "State of Fantasy"
	2. TOPOGRAPHIES OF FREEDOM: RACE, ETHNICITY, AND CULTURE
	Pirjo Ahokas
63	"Onto the hard path toward freedom": Urban Environments and Asian American Agency	129	Alberto Benvenuti African American Radicals and Revolutionary Cuba from 1959 until the Black Power Years
	Francesco Eugenio Barbieri
71	Toward a Transnational Perspective on Seattle's Japantown: Nagai Kafū's American Stories	139	Cristina Scatamacchia Dave Dellinger's Political Legacy to Occupy Wall Street

4. WRITING NATURE:
REPRESENTATIONS OF WILDNESS
& LIBERTY IN THE NEW WORLD

Nation-Building Process: the American Civil War and Italian
Unification

151 Giulia Iannuzzi
Science, Engagement,
Estrangement: Remarks on Kim
Stanley Robinson's Californian
Ecotopia

219 Matteo Battistini
"We may be caught in the trap of a garrison state": Harold
D. Lasswell, the American
Middle Class and the Political Legitimacy of the National Security State

161 Paola Loreto
Women's Ways to Nature:
Steinbeck's (Mock)Pastoral Diptych
of Gardening (& Childless)
Wives in The Long Valley

231 Michele Cento
The Revolution of Rising Entitlements: Daniel Bell and the Logic of Segregation in the Post-Industrial State

169 Paola Anna Nardi
"Here, am I, in the midst of this immense forest": Irish Immigrants in the American Wilderness

243 Carla Konta
Languages of Freedom in a
Coca-Cola Communist Country

177 Pasquale Verdicchio
The Real Work: Negotiating the Anthro-Ecocentric Divide

253 Jelena Šesnić
Asian American Transnational
Literature and United States
American Cold War History

185 Richard Kidder
Signs Written upon the Water:
On Some Representations of the Great Lakes as Inland Seas

6. FANTASY, POPULAR CULTURE,
AND DISSENT

195 Paolo Simonetti
"Schooled by the Inhuman Sea":
Maritime Imagination and the Discourses of Emancipation in Herman Melville's Clarel

265 Alice Casarini
Twilight of the Grrrls: Stephenie
Meyer's Rehash of the Feminine Mystique

5. THE UNIVERSALISM OF
AMERICAN FREEDOM AND ITS BOUNDARIES: NATIONALISM,
INTERNATIONALISM,
TRANSNATIONALISM

273 Serena Fusco
Food, Narrative, and Fantasy in David Leavitt's The Body of Jonah Boyd

205 Cristina Bon
The Controversial Concept of Emancipation in the

283 Salvatore Proietti
Philip K. Dick's Suburban
Jeremiad

293 Index