Contributors

Introduction
Robert W. Gordon and Morton J. Horwitz

PART I OVERVIEWS AND ASSESSMENTS OF FRIEDMAN'S WORK

1. Lawrence Friedman and the Canons of Law and Society
   Lauren B. Edelman

2. “Then and Now”: Lawrence Friedman as an Analyst of Social and Legal Change
   Vincenzo Ferrari

3. Lawrence Friedman and the Bane of Functionalism
   Victoria Saker Woeste

4. Lawrence M. Friedman’s Comparative Law
   Tom Ginsburg

PART II APPLICATIONS OF CONCEPTS, INSIGHTS, AND METHODS IN FRIEDMAN'S WORK

Legal Culture

5. To Influence, Shape, and Globalize: Popular Legal Culture and Law
   Jo Carrillo
6. Exploring Legal Culture: A Few Cautionary Remarks from Comparative Research
José Juan Toharia

Total Justice

7. The Travails of Total Justice
Marc Galanter

8. “Total Justice” and Political Conservatism
Robert A. Kagan

Erhard Blankenburg

PART III THE LEGAL PROFESSION

10. Friedman on Lawyers: A Survey
Philip Lewis

11. Legal Culture and the State in Modern Japan: Continuity and Change
Malcolm M. Feeley and Setsuo Miyazawa

PART IV LAW AND LARGE AREAS OF SOCIAL LIFE

12. The Death of Contract: Dodos and Unicorns or Sleeping Rattlesnakes?
Stewart Macaulay

Law and Contractual Relations

13. Law, Society, and the Environment
Robert V. Percival

Law and Religion

14. Separating Church and State: The Atlantic Divide
James Q. Whitman

Law and the Family

15. Civil Rites: The Gay Marriage Controversy in Historical Perspective
Joanna L. Grossman

PART V FACTS FROM THE UNDERGROUND: DIGGING LEGAL HISTORY OUT OF THE CELLAR

16. Historian in the Cellar
George Fisher

17. The Discreet Charm of Inquisitorial Procedure: Judges and Lawyers in a Case of Lèse Majesté in Late-Eighteenth-Century Venezuela
Rogelio Pérez-Perdomo

18. “Keep Negroes Out of Most Classes Where There Are a Large Number of Girls”: The Unseen Power of the Ku Klux Klan and Standardized Testing at The University of Texas, 1899–1999
Thomas D. Russell

Harry N. Scheiber

PART VI PERSPECTIVES FROM OTHER CONCEPTUAL WORLDS

20. Sociological Jurisprudence – Impossible but Necessary: The Case of Contractual Networks
Gunther Teubner

Richard S. Markovits

Index