

Contents

Chapter 1. Introduction	8
The People's moment: we can all make a difference
1a. Purpose of the book
1b. Who the book is for
1c. How the book was produced
1d. Main themes of the book
1e. How to use the book
Chapter 2. Citizenship	12
Citizenship is belonging to a country, with rights, services and full participation.
2a. Introduction
2b. Common problems related to citizenship
2c. Information for discussion
2d. Summary and conclusion
Chapter 3. Constitutions	28
No-one should think and choose for us. As citizens we have the right to write our views for a democratic constitution
3a. Introduction
3b. Common problems related to constitutions
3c. Information for discussion
3d. Summary and conclusion
Chapter 4. Principles of democracy	54
Democracy is about building a home in which all parts are equally strong.
4a. Introduction
4b. Common problems related to principles of democracy
4c. Information for discussion
4d. Summary and conclusion

Chapter 5. Human rights and responsibilities	69
Human rights are the shimmering lights at the end of the tunnel, we have the responsibility to persevere until we get there.
5a. Introduction
5b. Common problems related to rights and responsibilities
5c. Information for discussion
5d. Summary and conclusion
Chapter 6. Protection and participation of vulnerable groups	85
As you make a constitution Write to right our lives. Think about my education, health, food, shelter, freedom I'm also a human being.
6a. Introduction
6b. Common problems of vulnerable groups
i. Children
ii. Youth
iii. Women
iv. People living with HIV and AIDS
v. The Elderly
vi. The differently abled
vii. People who speak other languages
6c. Information for discussion
6d. Summary and conclusion
Chapter 7. The Economy and environment	96
We need to manage our resources wisely, for the well-being of all, and the future.
7a. Introduction
7b. Common problems related to the economy and the environment
7c. Information for discussion
7d. Summary and conclusion

Chapter 8. The Electoral process 110

*It is our right to choose the leaders we want;
the leaders we can trust*

- 8a. Introduction
- 8b. Common problems related to elections
- 8c. Information for discussions
- 8d. Summary and conclusion

Chapter 9. The Executive 124

The Executive is like a maize cob planted by the people. It should produce abundant cobs, after which it makes way for new plants.

- 9a. Introduction
- 9b. Common problems related to the executive
- 9c. Information for discussion
- 9d. Summary and conclusion

Chapter 10. The Legislature 136

The Emissaries between home and honey, not through patronage which kills development, but through making laws and policies to improve our lives.

- 10a. Introduction
- 10b. Common problems with the legislature
- 10c. Information for discussion
- 10d. Summary and conclusion

Chapter 11. The Judiciary 149

*We give judiciary some horns
Not to gore or bore
But to better bitter battles...*

- 11a. Introduction
- 11b. Common problems related to the judiciary
- 11c. Information for discussion
- 11d. Summary and conclusion

Chapter 12. Services and Independent Institutions 163

Services should nurture and protect, and enable citizens to live with freedom from want and fear.

- 12a. Introduction
- 12b. Common problems related to services
- 12c. Information for discussion
- 12d. Summary and conclusion

Chapter 13. Local governance 179

*As a trunk enables branches and leaves to flourish, so national governance should nurture, not dominate,
local governance, and local governance should nurture communities*

- 13a. Introduction
- 13b. Common problems related to local governance
- 13c. Information for discussion
- 13d. Summary and conclusion

Chapter 14. Conclusion 190

*Towards a homely home
All shall shun dire deeds
Our constitution should shine like chrome
As captivating as beads.*

- 14a. Introduction: Overview of the book
- 14b. Promoting a democratic constitution
- 14c. Sources of courage and hope
- 14d. Conclusion - Towards a homely home

- Directory of agencies 205
- Facilitator's guide 209
- Bibliography 222
- Acknowledgments 223
- Readership response to the book 226
- Forms for readers to send their views on specific topics.