

Contents

---

List of contributors	ix
Preface	xii

Opening speech Victor Nabhan	1
--	---

PART I THE STATUTE OF ANNE AND ITS ROLE IN THE WORLD OF COPYRIGHT

1 Introduction to Part I: the history of copyright Lionel Bently	7
2 The Statute of Anne 1709–10: its historical setting William Cornish	14
3 What's new about the Statute of Anne? or Six observations in search of an act Ronan Deazley	26
4 To what degree did the Statute of Anne (8 Anne, c.19, [1709]) affect commercial practices of the book trade in eighteenth-century England? Some provisional answers about copyright, chiefly from bibliography and book history Michael F. Suarez, S.J.	54
5 The Statute of Anne and authors' rights: Pope v. Curll (1741) Mark Rose	70

Transition from guild regulation to modern copyright law

6 Transition from guild regulation to modern copyright law – a view from the Low Countries Willem Grosheide	79
7 Transition from guild regulation to modern copyright law (Sweden) Gunnar Petri	103
8 From privilege to modern copyright law Martin Vogel	116

Influence, past and present, of the Statute of Anne on civil and common law countries
9	The influence (past and present) of the Statute of Anne in France Christophe Geiger 122
10	The influence of the Statute of Anne on Belgian copyright law Joris Deene 136
11	Colonial copyright redux: 1709 v. 1832 Pierre-Emmanuel Moyses 144
PART II DIGITAL LIBRARIES AND ONLINE LICENSING
12	Introduction to Part II Uma Suthersanen 169
13	Phoenixes in the internet era – the changing role of libraries Dame Lynne J. Brindley 176
Digital libraries in the current legal and educational environment
14	The development of digital libraries in the United States June M. Besek 187
15	Digital libraries in the current legal and educational environment: a European perspective Marco Ricolfi 216
16	Digital libraries in the current legal and educational environment: towards a remunerated compulsory license or limitation? Raquel Xalabarder 230
Collective administration for online libraries: a rightsholders' dream or an outdated illusion?
17	Digital libraries: collective administration for online libraries – a rightsholders' dream or an outdated illusion? Tarja Koskinen-Olsson 252
18	Towards a contextual copyright? Ysolde Gendreau 265

Online digitisation and licensing
19	Google Book Search Harjinder Obhi 275
20	Problem or solution? Mass digitisation of library stocks and the Google Book Settlement Christian Sprang 285
21	Online exploitation and licensing: General Reporter's summary and proposals for discussion J.A.L. Sterling 291
PART III THE BORDERLESS ERA: INTERNATIONAL EXHAUSTION, GLOBAL ADMINISTRATION AND FORMALITIES
22	Introduction to Part III Paul Torremans 299
International exhaustion
23	International exhaustion André Lucas 304
24	The economic perspective: exhaustion in the digital age Andreas Wiebe 321
Exhaustion in digital products: the impact on economic rights
25	The legal perspective on exhaustion in the borderless era: consideration of a digital first sale doctrine for online transmissions of digital works in the United States Marybeth Peters 329
26	Exhaustion in digital products and the 'accidental' impact on the balance of interests in copyright law Tomasz Targosz 337
27	Exhaustion – a casualty of the borderless digital era Trevor Cook 354
Formalities
28	Historical appearances and disappearances of formalities: from Berne to national laws Delia Lipszyc 367

29	Formalities in the digital era: an obstacle or opportunity? Stef van Gompel	395
30	The US experience with formalities: a love/hate relationship Jane C. Ginsburg	425
31	The scope of formalities in international copyright law in a digital context Takeshi Hishinuma	460

Global administration

32	The graduated response and the role of intermediaries: avoiding the Apocalypse or a return to the sources? Pierre Sirinelli	478
----	--	-----

	Closing speech Victor Nabhan	492
--	--	-----

	Closing dinner speech at Lincoln's Inn, 17 June 2009 Lord Hoffmann	495
--	--	-----

APPENDICES

Appendix 1	The Statute of Anne 1709–1710	501
Appendix 2	Further reading	507

	Index	509
--	--------------	-----