

INTRODUCTION ix
American Missionaries and the Middle East:
A History Enmeshed
Heather J. Sharkey

PART I
SHIFTING FOUNDATIONS OF AMERICAN MISSIONS

1. From New England into New Lands: The Beginning of a Long Story 3
Mehmet Ali Doğan
2. The Flexibility of Home: Exploring the Spaces and Definitions of the Home and Family Employed by the ABCFM Missionaries in Ottoman Syria from 1823 to 1860 33
Christine Lindner
3. At the Center of the Debate: Bebek Seminary and the Educational Policy of the American Board of Commissioners for Foreign Missions (1840–1860) 63
Cemal Yetkiner
4. From Religious to American Proselytism:
Mary Mills Patrick and the “Sanctification of the Intellect” 84
Carolyn Goffman

5. "They Are Not Known to Us": The Ottomans, the Mormons, and the Protestants in the Late Ottoman Empire 122

Karen M. Kern

PART 2

ripples of change: THE CONSEQUENCES OF MISSIONARY ENCOUNTERS

6. The Gospel of Science and American Evangelism
in Late Ottoman Beirut 167

Marwa Elshakry

7. Petko Slaveykov, the Protestant Press, and the Gendered Language of Moral Reform
in Bulgarian Nationalism 211

Barbara Reeves-Ellington

8. American Missionaries, the Arabic Bible, and Coptic Reform in Late Nineteenth-Century Egypt 237

Heather J. Sharkey

9. Comparing Missions: Pentecostal and Presbyterian Orphanages on the Nile 260

Beth Baron

BIBLIOGRAPHY 285

CONTRIBUTORS 331

INDEX 333

Illustrations follow page 164