1 Intercultural Musicology in Music Education: In Search for a Philosophy of Music Education in Malaysia
   Trigono Bramantyo

2 Orang Kalur – Musicians of the Royal Nobat of Perak
   Raja Iskandar Raja Halid

3 Shaping an Ethnomusicological Research: Theoretical Approaches in Studying Kompang Ensembles in Malaysia
   Mohd Hassan Abdullah

4 Music as Knowledge? – Some Thoughts on a Special Understanding between Human and Animal in the Mongolian Veldt
   Gisa Jähnichen

5 So, Now Let’s Face the Music and Move On: Sustainability for Surviving Chuangzuo Music in the Twenty-first Century as Observed at the Gongzuofang in Penang
   Chow Ow Wei

6 The Effect of Musical Fit on Consumers’ Choice when Opportunity and Ability is Limited
   Joanne Pei Sze Yeoh

7 ‘When One Entity Moves, Everything Else Moves with it’: Taijiquan’s Philosophy and Movement in Application to the Physicality of Piano Playing
   Loo Fung Ying

8 Aspects of Piano Writing for Non-birdsong Subjects in Oliver Messiaen’s Catalogue d’oiseaux
   Loo Fung Chiat

9 Music Literacy: Does It Really Matter? Questioning the Importance of Music Literacy in Classroom
   Xiaoyun Loke

10 Who Teaches Who: Some Observations of Sapè Learning from Two Sapè Players
    Chan Cheong Jan