

PART 1 – HISTORY AND THE GATES

- |   |  |    |
|---|--|----|
| 1 | Encounters at the Gates – Loh Kah Seng   | 3  |
| 2 | Walls, Gates and Locks: Reflections on Sources for Research on Student Political Activism – Huang Jianli                 | 28 |
| 3 | Archival Records in the Writing of Singapore History:A Perspective from the Archives – Kwa Chong Guan and Ho Chi Tim | 48 |

PART 2 – FRONT GATES

- |   |  |     |
|---|--|-----|
| 4 | Traversing the Boundaries of Historical Research:From the Singapore River to the Kra Canal – Stephen Dobbs | 67  |
| 5 | Seeking the Bukit Ho Swee Fire – Loh Kah Seng  | 79  |
| 6 | Research on Rural Associations in the Early Phase ofNation-building in Singapore – C. C. Chin              | 92  |
| 7 | An Insider’s Research into Buddhist History – Jack Chia Meng Tat   | 103 |
| 8 | Archaeology and its Role in the Construction of Singapore History – Derek Heng                                 | 112 |
| 9 | The National Museum as Maker and Keeper of Singapore History – Kevin Y. L. Tan                                 | 122 |

PART 3 SIDE GATES

- |    |   |     |
|----|---|-----|
| 10 | Perils and Prospects of Researching theMaria Hertogh Controversy – Syed Muhd Khairudin Aljunied | 139 |
| 11 | Making and Keeping the History of the US Involvementin Singapore – S. R. Joey Long              | 147 |

12	The United States, the Cold War and Countersubversion in Singapore – P. J. Thum	158
13	Writing Diplomatic History: A Personal Journey – Ang Cheng Guan	171
14	Digging up the Past in Singapore, Mainland China and Taiwan: Research into the Overseas Chinese Merchants in the China-Singapore Trade – Jason Lim	182

PART 4 MEMORY GATES

15	Singapore Memories: Remembering, and the Makers and Keepers of Singapore History – Ernest Koh Wee Song	195
16	Oral History as a Product of Malleable and Shifting Memories in Singapore – Kevin Blackburn	205
17	The Women I Met – Lai Ah Eng	221
18	Researcher Positionalities, Moral Gatekeeping and Knowledge Production: Some Thoughts on Doing Research on the Samsui Women in Singapore – Kelvin E. Y. Low	232
19	A Diaspora at War: National and Transnational Narratives of Singapore's Second World War – Ernest Koh Wee Song	242
20	A Personal Journey in Search of Art and Society in Singapore – Lim Cheng Tju	255
21	Coming to Terms with Relocation and Loss: Interviews on Diminishing Memories – Eng Yee Peng	260
22	Film and the Making and Keeping of Singapore History and Memory: A Dialogue with Martyn See and Tan Pin Pin	272
23	The 'Detention-Writing-Healing' Forum, 2006: A Public Oral History of Former Leftists – Michael Fernandez and Tan Jing Quee	288