Part 1  Introduction

1. Pirates, Ports, and Coasts in Asia
   John Kleinen and Manon Osseweijer

2. Piracy in Asian Waters: Problems of Definition
   Michael Pearson

Part 2  East Asia

3. Giang Binh: Pirate Haven and Black Market on the Sino-Vietnamese Frontier, 1780–1802
   Robert J. Antony

4. Tonkin Rear for China Front: The Dutch East India
   Company's Strategy for the North-Eastern Vietnamese Ports in the 1660s
   Hoang Anh Tuan

5. South Fujian the Disputed Coast, Power and Counter-power
   Paola Calanca

6. Maritime Piracy through a Barbarian Lens: Punishment and Representation (the S.S. Namoa Hijack Case, [1890–91])
   John Kleinen

Part 3  Southeast Asia

7. Violence and Armed Robbery in Indonesian Seas
   Adrian B. Lapian
8. Robbers and Traders: Papuan Piracy in the Seventeenth Century 147
   Gerrit Knaap

9. The Port of Jolo: International Trade and Slave Raiding 178
   James Warren

    Esther Velthooven

11. Suppressing Piracy in Asia: Decolonization and International Relations in a Maritime Border Region (the Sulu Sea), 1959–63 222
    Stefan Eklöf Amirell

12. Contemporary Maritime Piracy in the Waters off Semporna, Sabah 237
    Carolin Liss

13. Piracy in Contemporary Sulu: An Ethnographical Case Study 269
    Ikuya Tokoro