

Acknowledgements	11
Introduction	15
A Brief Review of the War of Independence in Donegal	20
1921 – The Truce and Breathing Space	27
Eithne Coyle and the Mountjoy Escape	32
The IRA Civic Police	37
The Treaty Signed, but not Sealed	41
Donegal Debates the Treaty	48
1922 – The Treaty Debates and Vote	51
1922 – The Released Prisoners and the Condemned Prisoners	58
The Special Powers Bill and the Six-County Policy	72
The IRA Convention and Split	83
Changing of the Guard and the Belfast Boycott	86
The Northern Offensive and the Newtowncunningham Tragedy	100
The Battles at Pettigo and Belleek	119
The Constitution of Saorstát Éireann and the 1922 Election	132
The Wilson Assassination – A Catalyst for Civil War	139
An Cogadh na gCarad – The War between Friends	144
Another Effort to Avert Civil War in Donegal	156

The Battles at Skeog	163
The Drumkeen Ambush	166
The Fall of Inch Fort	170
Republican Column 'On the Run'	173
Raids, Arrests and Escapes	184
Eithne Coyle's War Ends	198
Emergency Powers	200
Newbridge Internment Camp and the Escape	206
Arrests and Executions	210
1923 - Pettigo Reclaimed	216
Courts Martial and Executions in Donegal	222
Peadar O'Donnell - Held to Ransom	233
Conclusion	240
Internment Records of Donegal Internees	245
Glossary	253
Notes	255
Bibliography	272
Index	275