

Contents

Introduction to Networks as Connected Contracts
by Hugh Collins	1
1 Between Market and Organisation	4
Hybrids and Relational Contracts	6
Multilateral Associations	8
Networks	10
2 The Inadequacy of Legal Conceptions of Networks	13
Loyalty to the Network	14
Internal Non-contractual Liability in Networks	15
External Network Liability	16
3 Sociological Jurisprudence	18
4 The Distinctive Properties of Networks	21
5 The Challenge of Comparative Sociological Jurisprudence	25
6 The Concept of Connected Contracts	30
Section 358 BGB	32
Cancellation of Connected Contracts under English Law	35
Connected Lender Liability under English Law	37
Conclusion	40
7 Network Effects on Interpretation of Bilateral Contracts	41
8 Internal Network Liability	51
Conditions for Internal Network Liability	53
Legal Classification of Claim	56
Temporary Agency Workers	59
Multilateral Hierarchical Networks	63
9 External Network Liability	64
Boundaries of Networks	64
Responsibility in Groups of Companies	66
Organised Irresponsibility	68
10 Conclusion	71
Introduction: The Aims of Legal Analysis of Networks	73
Chapter 1
The Network Revolution: New Risks – Unsolved Legal Issues	77
I. Two ‘Irritating’ Legal Cases	77
II. Appropriate Doctrinal Responses?	82
III. Legally Relevant Networks	87
IV. The New Economic Relevance of Pre-modern Networks	93
V. Forms of Network and their Regulatory Problems	98
VI. Specific Risks of Networks	100
1. Euphoria and Sobriety	100

2.	Risks Associated with Trust	104
3.	Bilateralisation	105
4.	Asymmetries of Power and Information	106
5.	Externalities of Networks	107
6.	Boundary Blurring	109
7.	Interface Problems	110
Chapter 2
Socio-economic Analyses and Legal Characterisation		113
I.	Market Regime: Networks as Contracts?	113
II.	Organisational Regime: Networks as Business Associations?	116
III.	Hybrid Regimes: Networks as Institutionalised Contradictions?	122
IV.	Communitarian Regime: Networks as 'Communities'?	129
V.	Mixed Regime: Networks as a Type of Mixed Contract?	130
VI.	Polycorporate Regime: Networks as Corporate Groups?	133
VII.	Idiosyncratic Regime: 'Network Contract' as a New Legal Concept?	139
Chapter 3
Networks as Connected Contracts		145
I.	Generalisation of Connected Contracts and their Re-specification for Networks	145
II.	Structural and Functional Equivalances	149
III.	A Productive 'Unsustainable' Contradiction	152
IV.	The Legal Construct of Reality: the Dual Constitution as Contract and Association	156
1.	Legal Characteristics of the Association	156
2.	Distinguishing Connected Contracts from other Constructions	160
3.	The Proprium of Connected Contracts	162
V.	Legal Consequences: Selective Attribution to Contractual Partners and to the Network	168
1.	Genetic Connectivity	170
2.	Conditional and Functional Connectivity	173
VI.	Legal Problems of Institutionalised Networking	176
Chapter 4
The Effects of Networks on Bilateral Contracts		179
I.	Differentiated Discounts	179
II.	Structural Contradiction: Bilateral Exchange versus Multilateral Connectivity	182
III.	The Purpose of the Network as the Yardstick for Duties of Loyalty	184
IV.	Selected Duties of Loyalty toward the Network	186

V.	Profit Sharing?	191
VI.	Risk Distribution? Network Purpose and the Judicial Review of Standard Form Contracts	196
	1. Cost Strategies	202
	2. Modular Strategy	203
	3. Pooling Strategy	203
Chapter 5
Piercing Liability Within the Network: The Special Relationship between Members of the Network who Are Not Contractual Partners		207
I.	Free Riding in the Network	207
II.	Structural Contradiction: Competition versus Co-operation	210
III.	Piercing Within the Network?	213
IV.	Piercing Liability within Parallel Contracts	215
V.	Extra-Contractual Duties of Loyalty	219
	1. Unfair Competition Law	219
	2. Network Contract Claims	220
	3. Contract with Protective Effects for Third Parties	222
	4. Duties of Loyalty in Connected Contracts	225
VI.	Protective Obligations, Performance Obligations, Promotion Obligations	227
VII.	Analogies to Company Law: Derivative Action within the Contractual Network?	229
VIII.	Hierarchical Multilateral Network	233
Chapter 6
External Liability of Networks: Expanding the Range of Responsibility		235
I.	Franchising in Services: 'Organised Irresponsibility'	235
II.	Structural Contradiction: Unitas Multiplex	238
III.	External Liability of Networks	241
	1. Highly Centralised Networks	241
	2. Decentralised Networks	243
IV.	Decentralised Network Liability	246
	1. Network Contract	247
	2. Apparent Agency	248
	3. Contract with Protective Effects for Third Parties	250
	4. Culpa in contrahendo by Third Parties ( Sachwalterhaftung )	253
	5. Network Liability	258
V.	Selected Constellations of Liability	261
	1. Franchising in Services	261
	2. Intersecting Liability	264
	Bibliography	269
	Index	293