

3	Translator's Introduction
15	Forward Notes
23	The Creed of the Salaf regarding Allegorical Reports
25	The First Protocol: Exoneration (Taqdis)
27	The Form (Sūra)
28	The Descent (Nuzūl)
29	Above (Fawq)
30	The Second Protocol: Faith and Affirmation (Taṣḍīq)
33	The Third Protocol: Acknowledging One's Inability (al-'Itirāf bi al-'Ajz)
34	The Fourth Protocol: Maintaining Silence about Asking (Sukūt)
37	The Fifth Protocol: Abstaining from Meddling with the Stated Words (al-Imsāk)
37	TAFSĪR - Offering Explanations
40	TA'WĪL-Figurative Interpretation
54	TAṢRĪF-Altering Words
55	QIYĀS WA TAFRĪ' - Making Analogies and Logic-Based Assumptions
55	AL-JAM' - Joining Between What is Separated
57	AL-TAFRĪQ - Separating Between what is Joined Together
58	The Sixth Protocol: Restraining after Abstaining (al-Kaff)
67	The Seventh Protocol: Yielding to the People of Knowledge (al-Taslīm li Ahlihi)
71	Establishing the Comprehensive Proof That the Truth is the Madhhab of the Salaf
71	I. The Rational Proof
71	The Universally Applicable Rational Proof (Kullī)
76	The Individually Applicable Rational Proof (Tafsīli)
77	II. The Second Manner: The Scriptural Proof
86	Scattered Sections & Useful Chapters Related to This Craft
86	Section 1: The Place and Importance of Contexts (Qarā'in)
100	Section 2: Why Not Asking Is Important

104	Section 3: The Matter of the Beginningless Nature of Faith (Imān)
109	Section 4: The Levels of Affirmation
117	Section 5: Why the Means to Firm Faith Is of Little Importance
123	Bibliography
125	Index