

FOREWORD	5
LIST OF ILLUSTRATIONS	9
LIST OF ABBREVIATIONS	10
LIST OF CONTRIBUTORS	11
ACKNOWLEDGMENTS	14
Introduction	15
1 From policy to power: the evolution of Tudor reform strategies in sixteenth-century Ireland Ciaran Brady	21
2 A soldier's prescription for the governance of Ireland, 1599–1601: Captain Thomas Lee and his tracts John McGurk	43
3 Representing colonial landscapes: early English maps of Ulster and Virginia, 1580–1612 Annaleigh Margey	61
4 Lord Audley's grandiose building schemes in the Ulster plantation Rolf Loeber and Terence Reeves-Smyth	82
5 'Sword' and 'word' in the 1610s: Matthew De Renzy and Irish reform Brian Mac Cuarta	101
6 'Making Ireland English': the early seventeenth-century Irish peerage Jane Ohlmeyer	131
7 Scandal, Wentworth's deputyship and the breakdown of Stuart honour politics Brendan Kane	147
8 Loss and gain: attitudes towards the English language in early modern Ireland Bernadette Cunningham	163

9	Old English views of Gaelic Irish history and the emergence of an Irish Catholic nation, c.1569–1640 David Finnegan	187
10	'For our owne defence': Catholic insurrection in Wexford, 1641–2 Jason McHugh	214
11	The commission for the despoiled subject, 1641–7 Aidan Clarke	241
12	'The fatal ingredient of the covenant': the place of the Ulster Scottish colonial community during the 1640s Kevin Forkan	261
13	Past but still present: Edmund Borlase, Richard Parr and the reshaping of Irish history for English audiences in the 1680s Alan Ford	281
14	The impact of the battle of Aughrim (1691) on the Irish Catholic elite Pádraig Lenihan	300
15	Sir Richard Bellings, a Catholic courtier and diplomat from seventeenth-century Ireland Toby Barnard	326
	Atlantic horizons J.H. Elliott	348
	Select bibliography of the writings of Nicholas Canny to 2009 Marie Boran	351
	INDEX	361