

Contents

The criminalisation of youth and current trends: the sentencing game	7
Francis Bailleau, Yves Cartuyvels, and Dominique de Fraene
Juvenile justice in Belgium seen through the sanctions looking-glass	29
Yves Cartuyvels – Jenneke Christiaens – Dominique De Fraene - Els Dumortier
The criminalisation of youth: developments in Canada	59
Ross Hastings
The criminalisation of juveniles and countervailing trends: youth justice in England and Wales	77
Sam Lewis
Scottish youth justice: convergent pressures and cultural singularities	93
Lesley McAra
'The punitive turn' – are there any points of resistance? An answer from the Portuguese experience	111
Josefina Castro
The game of sanctions in the Spanish juvenile justice system The tension between primary and secondary criminalisation	135
María José Bernuz
France: breaking with the European line of juvenile justice? The successive reforms of the ordinance of 2 February 1945	155
Francis Bailleau

Romanian juvenile justice system between welfare values and neo-liberal inflexions	187
Doina Balahur
Slovenia	211
Katja Filipčič
Understanding juvenile penal justice in Turkey
An attitude both punitive and lax, expressing a will for solidarity	231
Verda İrtiş
Youth criminal justice in Europe
At the intersection of protective thinking, A neo-liberal turn, and neo-conservative ideology	263
Yves Cartuyvels – Francis Bailleau	