

Contents

Acknowledgments vii

1 Introduction 1
Tonia St. Germain and Susan Dewey

Part One Rhetoric and Discourses

2 International Versus Transnational?
The Politics of Prefixes in Feminist International Relations 15
Bronwyn Winter

3 Creating Second-Class Citizens at Home and Targets Abroad
A Feminist Analysis of Protection in the Use of Force 33
Laura Sparling

Part Two International Criminal Justice

4 Improvements in the Legal Treatment of
Systematic Mass Rape in Wartime
Where Do We Go From Here? 53
Avory Faucette

- 5 International Criminal Justice:
 Advancing the Cause of Women's Rights?
 The Example of the Special Court for Sierra Leone
Kiran Grewal 71
- 6 Combating Postconflict Violence Against Women
 An Analysis of the Liberian and Sierra Leonean Governments'
 Efforts to Address the Problem
Peace A. Medie 89
- 7 Gender-Based Violence, Help-Seeking, and
 Criminal Justice Recourse in Haiti
Benedetta Faedi Duramy 103

Part Three

Conflict-Related Sexual Violence and Its Aftermath

- 8 The Afghan State and the Issue of Sexual Violence
 Against Women
Carol Mann 123
- 9 The Experiences of Male Intimate Partners of Female Rape
 Victims From Cape Town, South Africa
 Their Journeys From Secondary Victims to
 Secondary Survivors of Rape
Evalina van Wijk 141
- 10 Which Conflict? Which Body? Which Nation?
 Prostitution, Gender, and Violence in the Colombian
 Postconflict Context
José Miguel Nieto Olivar and Carlos Iván Pacheco Sánchez 159

- References* 173
Contributors 197
Index 201