TABLE OF CONTENTS

Acknowledgements

Introduction

I. Overview: Contemporary Interdisciplinary Research

II. Analytical Frameworks

   1. The Traditional Doctrinal Approach
      1.1 The Doctrine of International Legal Personality
      1.2 Contextual Background and Main Implications

   2. Conceptual Frameworks Outside Personality
      2.1 The Functional-Constitutional Approach
      2.2 Contextual Background and Main Implications

III. Analytical Paradigms in the Context of Discourses on Legitimacy and Fairness

IV. Main Lines of Inquiry and Outline

Part I: INGOs: Arguing a Normative Status for Non-State Actors

   I. Subjects of International Law: Historic Context and Modern Controversies

   II. The Doctrine of International Legal Personality: Governing Principles

   III. INGOs: Role and Relevance

      1. Defining INGOs
      2. Defining 'Globalization'
      3. Role and Relevance of INGOs

IV. Analysis of Present Legal Status

      1. Article 71 UN Charter
      2. The European Convention on the Recognition of the Legal Personality of International NGOs
      3. Evaluation

V. INGOs’ International Normative Status: Intermediate Observations
TABLE OF CONTENTS

Part II: Ameliorating a Formal Normative Status for INGOs: Contextual Historical Analysis of Past Attempts and Legal Instruments

I. Historical Synopsis of Attempts to Draft an International Convention on the Normative Position of INGOs under International Law and Consequent Legal Arrangements...............105
   1. Pre Second World War Developments...........................................105
      1.1 The 1912 von Bar Proposal (Institute of International Law).........106
      1.2 The 1923 Politis Proposal (Institute of International Law).........109
   2. Post Second World War Developments.........................................113
      2.1 Proposal of the Conference of Consultative Status Non-Governmental Organizations (CCNGOs) (by Niboyet and Kopelmanas), 1948.................................................................113
      2.2 Proposal of the CCNGOs (by Habicht and Kopelmanas), 1949.113
      2.3 The 1950 Bastid Proposal (Institute of International Law)...........123
      2.4 The 1959 Speckaert Proposal (Union of International Associations).................................................................................................125
      2.5 The 1956 Draft Convention Concerning Recognition of the Legal Personality of Foreign Companies, Associations, and Foundations (The Hague Conference on Private International Law).................................................................127
      2.6 The 1983 Merle Report, Parliamentary Assembly of the Council of Europe (COE).................................................................128
      2.7 The 1986 European Convention on Recognition of the Legal Personality of International Non-Governmental Organizations (COE).................................................................................................131
      2.8 The 1986 European Parliament Resolution on Non-Profit Making Associations in the European Communities (EEC)..................131

II. Analysis and Evaluation ..............................................................137

Part III: The Emerging Global Scene: A Postmodern Perspective

I. The Postmodern Human Condition: Paradoxes and Communitarian Appeals .................................................................163
II. Globalization and De-Territorialization........................................181
III. Globalization and Theories on State and Society ............................205
IV. Global Civil Society ........................................................................223
V. American Perspective vs. Pan-European Perspective .......................261

Part IV: ‘INGOs’ Revolution Recommendations

I. Political Knowledge and Action .....................................................
II. Historical Contextual Analysis ....................................................
III. International Law ........................................................................
IV. Aggregate Impact ........................................................................
V. International Organizations ........................................................
VI. Globalization ..............................................................................
VII. Notion of Global Civil Society ...................................................
VIII. Accountability ...........................................................................
IX. Normative Perspectives ..............................................................
X. Hard Questions ...........................................................................

Bibliography ......................................................................................

Index .................................................................................................
TABLE OF CONTENTS

Part IV: ‘INGOs Within the Global Legal Order – Evolution, Revolution, or Vague Perception?’: Conclusions and Recommendations

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Section</th>
<th>Page</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>I. Political Knowledge and Sovereignty Debates</td>
<td>284</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>II. Historical Context of Contemporary Trends</td>
<td>303</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>III. International Legal Personality and Status</td>
<td>306</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>IV. Aggregate Individual Rights</td>
<td>310</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>V. International Legal Models of Idealism</td>
<td>314</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>VI. Globalization Debate</td>
<td>323</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>VII. Notion of Global Civil Society</td>
<td>325</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>VIII. Accountability and Legitimacy</td>
<td>332</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>IX. Normative Perception</td>
<td>338</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>X. Hard Questions and Future Inquiry</td>
<td>347</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Bibliography</td>
<td>353</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Index</td>
<td>373</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>