

Contents

Acknowledgments	ix
Introduction	xvii
1 Medical Euthanasia and Assisted Suicide: A Twentieth-Century Issue	1
2 The 1930s and 1940s: From the King of England to the Holocaust	11
3 The 1950s: The First Anglo-American Prosecutions for Medical Euthanasia and the Resulting Academic Debate	29
4 The 1960s–1980s: Decriminalizing Suicide and Non-Voluntary Euthanasia of Those in Persistent Vegetative States	49
5 The 1990s and Jack “Dr. Death” Kevorkian: From Physician-Assisted Suicide to Medical Euthanasia	63
6 The 1990s: The Non-Michigan Parallel Text of Doctor Prosecution and Initial Failed Legislative Efforts	87
7 Legalizing and Implementing Physician-Assisted Suicide in Oregon in the 1990s and 2000s	109
8 The 2000s: Post-Millennium Case Studies of State Reactions to Euthanasia and Assisted Suicide	135
Concluding Commentary	153

Appendix: Table of Cases, Legislation, Proposed Legislation, and Initiatives	165
Glossary	169
Bibliography	173
Index	179