

Contents

Introduction	7
Ulla Neergaard and Ruth Nielsen
General Perspectives
Judicial Argumentation in Fundamental Rights Cases – the EU Courts’ Challenge	27
Janneke Gerards
Plurality of Sources in European Private Law, or: How to Live with Legal Diversity?	71
Jan M. Smits
Changes in the Relative Importance of Sources of Law
Towards an Interactive Comparative Method for Studying the Multi-Layered EU Legal Order	89
Ruth Nielsen
International Law and Human Rights – Good or Bad for European Union Law?	117
Martin Scheinin
The Scope of Application of Fundamental Rights on Member States’ Action: In Search of Certainty in EU Adjudication	135
Xavier Groussot, Laurent Pech and Gunnar Thor Petursson
The Europeanisation of Legal Concepts	165
Loïc Azoulay
The Public-private Divide in European Union Law	183
Constanze Semmelmann

Changes in the Relative Importance of Sources of Law – The Case of EU Soft Law	225
Linda Senden

Law in Context

Studying the EU in Legal and Political Sciences Scholarship	263
Ulla Neergaard and Marlene Wind

Constitutional Problems of Multi-level Judicial Governance in Trade and Investment Regulation	293
Ernst-Ulrich Petersmann

About the Authors	333
--------------------------------	-----