CHAPTER ONE: HISTORICAL BACKGROUND OF CONSTITUTIONALISM AND THE RULE OF LAW IN BOTSWANA

Pre-colonial Botswana and constitutionalism
Colonial period, the dual legal system and constitutionalism
Post-colonial period and emergence of Botswana modern constitution
Dual legal system
The process leading to the passage of the constitution in Botswana

CHAPTER TWO: CONSTITUTIONALISM, THE RULE OF LAW AND THE CONSTITUTION

Introduction
Definition
Functions of a constitution
The nature of the constitution
Basic principles of the constitution
  Constitutionalism
  Rule of Law
  Democracy and Accountability
  Separation of Powers and Checks and Balances
General characteristics of the constitution
Limitation of rights
Amendment of the constitution
Who are the constitution’s authoritative interpreters?
What are the basic rules of constitutional interpretation?
Presumption of constitutionality
CHAPTER THREE: BASIC PRINCIPLES OF THE BOTSWANA GOVERNMENT

Introduction
The core principles of liberal democracy
  A constitutional democracy
  A constitution
  A judicial system premised on the belief in equality of all individuals
Public representatives occupy the positions that they do at the pleasure of the people
Peaceful and civil co-existence of the ruling and opposition parties
  A loyal opposition
  Political competitors who obey the laws of the country

Citizenship
Requirements of citizenship
Dual citizenship
Political parties
List of political parties in Botswana
The contribution of political parties in building and sustaining democracy
The electoral process
Media and elections
The fruits of self-government

CHAPTER FOUR: APPLICATION OF THE BILL OF RIGHTS

Introduction
The recipients of the rights conferred by Chapter 2 of the Constitution (The Bill of Rights)
Vertical and horizontal application of the Bill of Rights
Comparative jurisprudence
  Canada
  Namibia
  South Africa
Hierarchy of fundamental rights
Socio-economic rights

PART TWO: THE BILL OF RIGHTS

CHAPTER FIVE: THE RIGHT TO LIFE

Introduction
The death penalty
Euthanasia
Self-defence
Abortion
CHAPTER SIX: PERSONAL LIBERTY AND EQUAL PROTECTION OF THE LAW 52
- Introduction 53
- Provision to secure equal protection of the law 56

CHAPTER SEVEN: PROTECTION FROM SLAVERY AND FORCED LABOUR, INHUMAN AND DEGRADING TREATMENT AND PUNISHMENT 57
- Introduction 58
- Protection from torture and inhuman or degrading punishment or treatment 59

CHAPTER EIGHT: PROTECTION FROM DEPRIVATION OF PROPERTY AND PRIVACY OF HOME AND OTHER PROPERTY 61
- Introduction 62
- Aboriginal title 64
- Protection of privacy of home and other property 65

CHAPTER NINE: PROTECTION OF FREEDOM OF CONSCIENCE 67
- Introduction 68
- Elements of freedom of conscience 68
- Freedom of religion 68
- Doctrine of religious entanglement 71

CHAPTER TEN: FREEDOM OF EXPRESSION 72
- Introduction 72
- The importance of freedom of expression 73
- Freedom of the press 75

CHAPTER ELEVEN: PROTECTION OF FREEDOM OF ASSEMBLY AND ASSOCIATION 77
- Introduction 77
- Freedom of assembly under international law 78
- Freedom of association 79
- Collective bargaining 81

CHAPTER TWELVE: PROTECTION OF FREEDOM OF MOVEMENT 83
- Introduction 84
- The right to be issued with a passport 84
- Stop and search operations by the police 85
- Restrictions on freedom of movement 85

CHAPTER THIRTEEN: PROTECTION FROM DISCRIMINATION 89
- Introduction 90
- The nexus between Sections 3 and 15 90
- Discrimination on the basis of sex, although not listed, is not permissible 92
PART THREE: THE RIGHT TO VOTE AND THE ELECTORAL PROCESS

CHAPTER FOURTEEN:
THE RIGHT TO VOTE AND POLITICAL PARTICIPATION

Introduction
Franchise
Citizenship
Age
Residence
Disqualifications
Voter registration
The right to participate
The qualifications to be a parliamentary candidate
  Citizenship
  Age
  The requirement to speak and read English
Disqualifications
Qualification for election as president
Nomination procedures for parliamentary candidates
The right to form a political party

CHAPTER FIFTEEN: THE CONSTITUTIONAL AND INSTITUTIONAL FRAMEWORK FOR THE SUPERVISION AND CONDUCT OF ELECTIONS

Introduction
Delimitation commission
Attributes of the election management body
  Independence
  Impartiality
  Transparency
  Accountability
The body in charge of the election should be monitored
Various approaches to administering elections
  Government approach
  Judicial approach
  Multiparty approach
  Expert approach
The Independent Electoral Commission
Composition and appointment of the Electoral Commission
Functions of the Commission
CHAPTER SIXTEEN: THE VOTING PROCESS AND ELECTION PETITIONS

Introduction 143
The principles of free and fair voting 144
Polling stations and the appointment of staff 144
Preparation for polling 145
  Distance 146
  Population 146
  Terrain 146
Conduct of polling stations 147
Polling agents 147
Polling 148
Foreign voting 149
Prohibitions on polling day 149
  Personation 150
  Treating 150
  Undue influence 150
  Bribery 150
Closing of poll 150
The counting process 151
Challenging the results: election petitions 154

PART FOUR: ORGANS OF GOVERNMENT 157

CHAPTER SEVENTEEN: THE EXECUTIVE BRANCH 159

Introduction 159
Election of the president 159
Oath of office 161
Functions of the president 161
Assenting to and signing bills 162
Appointing commissions of inquiry 162
Prerogative of mercy 162
Vacancy in the office of the president 164
Presidential immunity 165
A synopsis of presidential immunity in selected constitutions in other jurisdictions 168
  Nigeria 168
  Zimbabwe 168
  Zambia 169
  Tanzania 169
A brief synopsis of the jurisprudence on presidential immunity 170
The vice-presidency 171
Functions of the vice-president 171
The acting president 171
CHAPTER TWENTY-ONE: SEPARATION OF POWERS, CHECKS AND BALANCES

Introduction
An overview of separation of powers in Botswana
The three branches of the state wield unequal power
Different branches of the state are interdependent
There is an overlapping of functions between the legislature and the executive
Members of cabinet are also members of the legislature
The executive has the power to legislate
Parliament may delegate legislative authority to the executive
Legislation that is in conflict with the constitution may be declared invalid
The responsibility for the day to day administration of the country
Relationship between the executive and the judiciary
Judicial officers and performance of executive functions
Judicial review of executive decision making
A member of the judiciary cannot at the same time be a member of the legislature
Judicial interference in the law-making process
The legislature has the power to limit the power of the courts
Separation of powers and the workings of government

PART FIVE: PUBLIC AFFAIRS AND PUBLIC OFFICE

CHAPTER TWENTY-TWO: PUBLIC FINANCE

Introduction
Consolidated Fund
Contingencies Fund
Public debt
Appropriation Act
Supplementary estimates
Auditor General