Introduction

I. History & Development of English in Sri Lanka
   1. Hector A. Passé, Ceylon English ...........................................13
   2. Doric de Souza, Targets and Standards ...................................30
   4. A. Suresh Canagarajah, Negotiating Ideologies through English Strategies from the Periphery 66
   5. Arjuna Parakrama, “Naduth Unge Baduth Unge” (Mistranslated as The Rules & Tools are Theirs): Some Thoughts on the Language of Privilege & the Privilege of Language 78

II. English: Education & Literature
   6. E.F.C. Ludowyk, English in the University ................................105
   7. Martin Wickramasinghe, Influence of English on Sinhalese Literature ........111
   9. Thiru Kandiah, De-/Re-centering thought and practice in Third World English 131
      language studies: From the materiality of the word to the determinate materiality of time and place

III. Sri Lankan English Phonology, Morphology & Vocabulary
   11. Hector Passé, Alveolar Fricatives and Palato-Alveolar Fricatives ..................183

IV. Language Choices, Functions & Policies
   15. Siromi Fernando, Changes in Sri Lankan English as in 1985 ......................224
   16. Suresh Canagarajah, The political economy of code choice in a "revolutionary society": Tamil-English bilingualism in Jaffna, Sri Lanka 236
   17. Viktoria Kunstler, Dushyanthi Mendis & Joybrato Mukherjee, English in Sri Lanka: Language functions and speaker attitudes 264
V. Standards & Dialects of Sri Lankan English

19. Arjuna Parakrama, De-Hegemonizing: The Abstract and the Concrete 301

20. Siromi Fernando, Does Sri Lankan English (SLE) have dialects, and can one dialect be identified as Standard SLE? 304

21. Manique Gunesekera, Sri Lankan Bilinguals and the Problem of Front Vowels 314