

CHAPTER 1

A multisector response to food security

Message of Haruhiko Kuroda, ADB

Message of Jacques Diouf, FAO

Message of Kanayo Nwanze, IFAD

CHAPTER 2

Food for all through innovative partnerships

A call for a new paradigm

Rt. Hon. James B. Bolger ONZ

CHAPTER 3

Country responses to food security

Bangladesh: Prioritizing agriculture, food security, and nutrition

Muhammad Abdur Razzaque

People's Republic of China:

Steering development orientation as a driver of change

Zhou Qijiang

India: Exploring out-of-the-box options to feed the poor

T. Nandakumar

Ashok Gulati

Pravesh Sharma

Kavery Ganguly

Lao People's Democratic Republic:

Targeting a viable and resilient agriculture sector

Phouangparisak Pravongviengkham

Pacific Subregion: Building healthy islands through partnership

Joketani Cokanasiga

Hans Joachim Keil

Aleki Sisifa

CHAPTER 4

Fostering food security through regional cooperation and integration 71

The changing role of rice in Asia's food security 72
C. Peter Timmer

CHAPTER 5

Investments for enhancing productivity 95

Harnessing the potential of smallholder farm organizations:
Thailand's Swift Company 96
Paichayon Uathaveekul

Spurring rice productivity in Asia:
A global rice science partnership 106
Robert S. Zeigler
Achim Dobermann

Blending the ancient and the new to provide solutions:
Agricultural water management 117
Thierry Facon
Aditi Mukherji

CHAPTER 6

Investing in natural resource management
and environment services 129

Profitable yet sustainable: Conservation agriculture 130
Yuji Niino

Ecosystem approaches to coastal resources management:
The case for investing in mangrove ecosystems 140
D. J. Macintosh
M. M. Epps
O. Abrenilla

Securing sustainable livelihoods and environmental protection:
Community forestry as a key strategy 156
Yam Malla

Connecting environment and food security 173

CHAPTER 7

Building resilience against vulnerability 17

A panacea? Agricultural insurance 17

Ake Olofsson

Picking the “low-hanging fruit” first: 18

Adapting to climate change

Zhijun Chen

Taking a holistic approach: 19

Transboundary animal disease control

Subhash Morzaria

CHAPTER 8

Innovative financing for food security 20

Innovative solutions show the way: 21

Lending a helping hand to rural producers

Gilberto M. Llanto

Jocelyn R. Badiola

CHAPTER 9

Investments in connectivity 22

Solutions from smallholders 23

How livestock smallholders help out:

Upgrading food security in the Greater Mekong Subregion 23

T. R. D. Weaver

P. Gautier

Increasing the market chain participation of small producers: 23

The NorminVeggies case

Joan Cua Uy

Resolving quality control and market access for small farms: 24

The K-Farm Carambola GAP Program

Kit Chan

Solutions from the corporate sector 25

Integrating the food supply chain: 25

The win-win strategy of Field Fresh Foods, India

Raman Ahuja

Hello, markets! How the e-Choupal makes connectivity work 266
Shailesh Naik

Harnessing public-private partnerships in Asia:
The UN World Food Programme 279
Cynthia Jones

The food and nutrition security nexus 290

CHAPTER 10

Perspectives from key stakeholders 295

The outlook of development partners 296

The private sector perspective 313

The voice of civil society organizations

Investments for Food Security in Asia and the Pacific:
For whom and for what? 328

CHAPTER 11

Road map for change 337

Summary Remarks of Ursula Schaefer-Preuss, ADB 338

Summary Remarks of Hiroyuki Konuma, FAO 340

Summary Remarks of Ganesh Thapa, IFAD 343

Asia & the Pacific Regional Food Security
Partnership Framework by and among ADB, FAO, and IFAD 345

APPENDIX

Program of the Investment Forum on Food Security
in Asia and the Pacific, 7-9 July 2010 351