Introduction

Roxana Waterson and Kwok Kian-Woon

Part I: Southeast Asia within the Field of Memory Studies

Chapter 1  The Work of Memory and the Unfinished Past: Deepening and Widening the Study of Memory in Southeast Asia
Roxana Waterson and Kwok Kian-Woon

Part II: Nationalisms and the Construction of Destinies

Chapter 2  Remembering Kings: Archives, Resistance and Memory in Colonial and Post-colonial Burma
Maitrii Aung-THwin

Chapter 3  Shifting Visions of the Past: Ethnic Minorities and the ‘Struggle for National Independence’ in Laos
Vatthana Pholsena

Chapter 4  Truth and Memory: Narrating Viet Nam
Sharon Seah Li-Lian

Chapter 5  Textual Construction of a Nation: The Use of Merger and Separation
Dayang Istiaisyah bte Hussin

Chapter 6  Remembering, Misremembering and Forgetting: The Struggle over Serangan Oemoem 1 Maret 1949 in Yogyakarta, Indonesia
Heddy Shri Ahimsa Putra
Part III: Traumatic Memories: Interpenetrations of Collective and Personal Experience

Chapter 7  War and Violence, History and Memory: The Philippine Experience of the Second World War  185
            Ricardo T. José

Chapter 8  The Past in the Present: Memories of the 1964 ‘Racial Riots’ in Singapore  201
            Adeline Low Hwee Cheng

Chapter 9  Memories at the Margins: Chinese-Educated Intellectuals in Singapore  230
            Kwok Kian-Woon and Kelvin Chia

Chapter 10 Living with the Spectre of the Past: Traumatic Experiences among Wives of Former Political Prisoners of the ‘1965 Event’ in Indonesia  270
            Budiawan