

	Foreword	vii
	Acknowledgements	ix
	About the Editor/Contributors	xi
1.	Introduction Shanthie Mariet D'Souza	1

SECTION I

SETTING THE AGENDA: AN AFGHAN PERSPECTIVE

2.	The Challenges and Prospects of Transition in Afghanistan Ali A. Jalali	25
3.	Peace, Reconciliation and Reintegration in Afghanistan: Challenges and Milestones Facing Peace Talks, Transition and Stability in the Region Mohammad Masoom Stanekzai	37

SECTION II

SECURITY, POLITICAL PROCESSES & GOVERNANCE

4.	Security in Afghanistan Beyond 2014: Preparedness of the Afghan National Security Forces Arian Sharifi	63
5.	Political Reform and Peace-building in Afghanistan Ahmad Wali Masoud	70
6.	Myths and Impact of Bad Governance on Stability in Afghanistan Shahm Mahmood Miakhel	83

SECTION III

AID, GENDER, DEVELOPMENT, ECONOMIC OPPORTUNITIES, TRADE, INVESTMENT, CONNECTIVITY & STRATEGIC COMMUNICATION

7. Afghanistan in the Course of Transition: Civilian Surge, Aid
Coordination, War Economy and Alternative Livelihood 95
Najeeb Ur Rahman Manalai
8. Aid, Development, Women, Non-Governmental Organisations:
A grass-root perspective 109
Rangina Hamidi
9. Role of Strategic Communication and Public Awareness in Actualizing Transition 118
Muhammad Sabir Siddiqi

SECTION IV

REGIONAL AND INTERNATIONAL COMMUNITY'S PERSPECTIVES ON TRANSITION

10. Is Regional Consensus on Afghanistan Possible? 133
Haroun Mir
11. Pakistan's Perspective on the Afghan Transition 145
Rasul Bakhsh Rais
12. India's Engagement with Afghanistan: Developing a
Durable Policy Architecture 161
Daniel Norfolk
13. U.S. Perspectives on the Afghan Transition Process 184
Marvin G. Weinbaum