

Foreword by Tan Sri Dato' Seri Dr. Haji Arshad bin Ayub, PSM, SPMS, SPSK, DPMP, DPMJ, DSAP, DPMT, PGDK, JMN	ix
Author's Preface	xi
Chapter 1: Historical Background.	1
The Spice Trade in the East Indies and the Eastern Archipelago. The presence of the Portuguese, Dutch and English in the East Indies and in Malaya and the founding of British Malaya.
Chapter 2: The Education System in Malaya After World War II.	8
Vernacular and English schools in Malaya. The King Edward VII College of Medicine and Raffles College.
Chapter 3: The British Commissions on Higher-University Education in Malaya, 1938 to 1947	16
The McLean Commission on Higher Education in Malaya, 1938, the Asquith Commission on Higher Education in the Colonies, 1943, and Carr-Saunders Commission on University Education in Malaya, 1947.
Chapter 4: The University of Malaya, 1949 to 1959	29
Its establishment, growth and development.
Chapter 5: The University of Malaya in Kuala Lumpur, 1959 to 1961	61
Its establishment, growth and development.
CHAPTER 6: The University of Malaya, 1962 to 1968	80
Under Professor Tan Sri Dato' Sir A. Oppenheim, Professor R.L. Huang and Professor Tan Sri Chin Fung Kee (both Acting Vice-Chancellors), and Dr. J.H.E. Griffiths.

CHAPTER 7: The Old Medical Centre, University of Malaya, 1963 to 1975	138
Under Professor Tan Sri Dato' T.J. Danaraj, Dean of Medicine.
CHAPTER 8: University of Malaya, 1968-69 to 1985-86	187
Under Royal Professor Ungku A. Aziz.	