Cognitive Dynamics: Language as Values Realizing Activity .................. 1
Stephen Cowley

The Biological Centrality of Talk .................................................. 33
Raymond Jennings and Joseph Thompson

Cognitive Dynamics in the Japanese Language: Language Process Theory of Tokieda and Miura ......................................................... 64
Seiichi Imoto

On the Ontology and Cognitive Processing of Languages: A Tentative Approach ................................................................. 81
Hans Götzsche and Ksenya Filatova

Formal Written-Language-Biased vs. Dialogical Linguistics on the Nature of Language ................................................ 107
Per Linell

Grammar as Semiosis and Cognitive Dynamics ........................... 125
Alexander Kravchenko

The Adjectival Concept in Dynamics and in the Dictionary ............. 154
Eugene Rivelis

Biology of Cognition, Biosemiotics, and Second Language "Acquisition" ................................................................. 185
Igor Arkhipov
Bilingual Finnish-Russian Children describing Pictures in their Two Languages .................................................. 214
Ekaterina Protassova

Language Acquisition as a Synonymic Net Growth: Search for an Experiment .............................................. 241
Ksenya Filatova

Translation of Legal Texts as Cognitive Interactions ................................................................. 261
Slávka Janigová