

Contents

|                                    |    |
|------------------------------------|----|
| Preface: My Constitutional Odyssey | ix |
|------------------------------------|----|

PART ONE: PRELIMINARIES

|   |    |
|---|----|
| Introduction: Our Two Constitutions   | 3  |
| 1. The Classical Liberal Synthesis  | 17 |
| 2. The Progressive Response   | 34 |
| 3. Constitutional Interpretation: The Original and the Prescriptive Constitutions | 45 |

PART TWO: CONSTITUTIONAL STRUCTURES

Section I: The Judicial Power

|                                     |     |
|-------------------------------------|-----|
| 4. The Origins of Judicial Review   | 77  |
| 5. Marbury and Martin | 86  |
| 6. Standing: Background and Origins | 101 |
| 7. Modern Standing Law              | 119 |
| 8. The Political Question Doctrine  | 133 |

Section II: The Legislative Power

|  |     |
|--|-----|
| 9. The Commerce Power: Theory and Practice, 1787–1865                          | 147 |
| 10. The Commerce Clause in Transition: 1865–1937                               | 158 |
| 11. The Commerce Clause: Transformation to Consolidation, 1937–1995            | 168 |
| 12. Constitutional Pushback: 1995 to Present, from Lopez to NFIB | 183 |
| 13. Enumerated Powers: Taxing and Spending                                     | 194 |
| 14. The Necessary and Proper Clause  | 210 |
| 15. The Dormant Commerce Clause  | 227 |

Section III: The Executive Power

|   |     |
|---|-----|
| 16. Basic Principles and Domestic Powers            | 247 |
| 17. Delegation and the Rise of Independent Agencies | 267 |
| 18. Foreign and Military Affairs                    | 285 |

PART THREE: INDIVIDUAL RIGHTS

Section I: Property, Contract, and Liberty

|  |     |
|--|-----|
| 19. From Structural Protections to Individual Rights                 | 303 |
| 20. Procedural Due Process: Implementing the Classical Liberal Ideal | 314 |
| 21. Freedom of Contract  | 337 |
| 22. Takings, Physical and Regulatory                                 | 347 |
| 23. Personal Liberties and the Morals Head of the Police Power       | 367 |

Section II: Speech

|  |     |
|--|-----|
| 24. Freedom of Speech and Religion: Preliminary Considerations                               | 383 |
| 25. Force, Threats, and Inducements  | 395 |
| 26. Fraud, Defamation, Emotional Distress, and Invasion of Privacy                           | 406 |
| 27. Government Regulation of the Speech Commons  | 423 |
| 28. Progressive Regulation of Freedom of Speech: Labor, Communications, and Campaign Finance | 437 |

Section III: Religion

|   |     |
|---|-----|
| 29. Free Exercise   | 461 |
| 30. The Establishment Clause: Theoretical Foundations     | 481 |
| 31. Regulation and Subsidy under the Establishment Clause | 492 |
| 32. The Commons   | 503 |

Section IV: Equal Protection

|  |     |
|--|-----|
| 33. Race and the Fourteenth Amendment        | 521 |
| 34. Citizenship and the Fourteenth Amendment | 541 |
| 35. Equal Protection and Sex Discrimination  | 554 |

PART FOUR: CONCLUSION

|   |     |
|---|-----|
| Conclusion: The Classical Liberal Alternative | 569 |
| Notes   | 585 |
| Index of Cases                                | 653 |
| General Index                                 | 665 |