

Contents

Acknowledgements	x
Table of cases	xi
Preface	xiv
Introduction	xvi
1 The powers of the United Nations Security Council and resistance to its resolutions	1
1.1 Scope of the powers of the UNSC and mandatory resolutions	1
1.2 Addressees of mandatory UNSC resolutions	3
1.3 The effects of mandatory resolutions	5
1.4 Interpreting Council resolutions for the ascertainment of their nature	7
1.5 Resolutions in accordance with the Charter, the presumption against normative conflict and voidability	10
1.6 The Council's competence to decide, States' powers of autointerpretation and judicial review by the ICJ	11
1.7 Resistance to prima facie mandatory resolutions	14
2 UN Charter as a constitution and the notion of constitutional resistance	27
2.1 The Charter as a constitution	27
2.2 Purposes and Principles of the UN	30
2.3 Peremptory norms of international law	34
2.4 Doctrine of implied powers	38
2.5 Rule of law at the UN and international levels	41
2.6 The notion of constitutional resistance	44
3 South African resistance to the demands that it abandon apartheid and withdraw from Namibia	56
3.1 South Africa's arguments	56
3.2 Summary of the main resolutions of the Security Council addressing apartheid	58
3.3 Summary of the main resolutions of the Security Council addressing Namibia	62

- 3.4 Debates and voting in the Council 65
- 3.5 The ICJ on Namibia 67
- 3.6 Review of the lawfulness of South Africa's resistance and conclusion 70
- 4 Iraq's resistance to economic sanctions, with focus on its opposition to the implementation of humanitarian exemptions 77
 - 4.1 Summary of the main resolutions of the Council in their respective contexts 78
 - 4.2 Debates and voting in the Council 81
 - 4.3 Iraq's resistance and arguments 82
 - 4.4 Failure of the exemptions regime and of the OFF programme: the economic embargo as one of the causes of the humanitarian hardship 84
 - 4.5 Reaction of international organisations 85
 - 4.6 Evolution of the understanding of the aims of economic embargoes 86
 - 4.7 Assessment of the embargo and OFF mechanism 88
 - 4.8 Review of the lawfulness of Iraq's resistance and conclusion 89
- 5 Bosnia and Herzegovina's noncompliance with the arms embargo 96
 - 5.1 Summary of the main resolutions of the Council 96
 - 5.2 Resort to the General Assembly 98
 - 5.3 Resort to the International Court of Justice 101
 - 5.4 Resort to the Organisation of the Islamic Conference 103
 - 5.5 Reaction of the Council 104
 - 5.6 Resistance to the embargo and its justification 107
 - 5.7 Reports of the Secretary-General 109
 - 5.8 Commentary concerning the right to self-defence and the Security Council 111
 - 5.9 Review of the lawfulness of resistance and conclusion 112
- 6 Libya's noncompliance with determinations for the surrender of suspects and payment of compensation 120
 - 6.1 Summary of the main resolutions of the Council 120
 - 6.2 Debates and voting in the Council 122
 - 6.3 Resort to the International Court of Justice 125
 - 6.4 Resort to the League of Arab States, Organisation of the Islamic Conference, Non-Aligned Movement and Organisation of African Unity 128
 - 6.5 Strength of the claims of unlawfulness of the Council's resolutions 130
 - 6.6 Differences between Libya and other cases in which extradition was determined by the UNSC 134
 - 6.7 Review of the lawfulness of resistance and conclusion 136

7	Iran's noncompliance with demands that it suspend nuclear activities and comply with the Protocol Additional to the Safeguards Agreement	145
7.1	Legal background	145
7.2	The case of Iraq	148
7.3	The case of the Democratic Popular Republic of Korea	149
7.4	Summary of the main resolutions of the IAEA Board of Governors	150
7.5	Summary of the main resolutions of the Council	151
7.6	Debates and voting in the Council	153
7.7	Strength of the claims on unlawfulness of the Council's resolutions	155
7.8	Review of the lawfulness of resistance and conclusion	159
8	Targeted sanctions on individuals suspected of terrorism	167
8.1	Summary of the main resolutions of the Council	168
8.2	The Kadi case	172
8.3	The Abdelrazik, Othman and Nada cases	177
8.4	Debates in the Council	180
8.5	Impacts of the decisions on the 1267 regime	181
8.6	Review of the 1267/1989 regime by the Special rapporteur	183
8.7	Review of the lawfulness of resistance and conclusion	186
9	Critique of the prevalent theories	194
9.1	Ciobanu: right of last resort as a political determination of a preliminary objection to political organs of the UN	194
9.2	De Wet: right of last resort for the protection of fundamental norms	200
9.3	Tzanakopoulos: civil disobedience to the Council as a countermeasure to the unlawfulness of a resolution	204
10	Resisting UNSC resolutions	212
10.1	Member States' obligation towards peace and security	212
10.2	Resistance as a mechanism to foster development of the law of the UN	216
10.3	State resistance and civil disobedience	219
10.4	Government resistance and State resistance	222
10.5	Resisting UNSC resolutions	225
	Conclusion	230
	Bibliography	234
	Index	244