

Table of Contents

---

PREFACE	xiii
KEYNOTE ADDRESS	xv
INTRODUCTION	xxiii
PART I
State, Family, and Nongovernment Resources for Older People
Family and State Roles in Promoting the Well-being of Older Filipinos Grace T. Cruz and Armand N. Camhol	3
Aging in Bangladesh: Tasks and Challenges Ahead Md. Abdur Rahim Khan	27
Aging Population and Social Security in Sri Lanka S. T. Hettige and W. Indralal De Silva	45
Aging in Iran: State, Family, and Social Support Susan Bastani	61
PART II
Evolving Notions of Old Age, Elderly Care and Support, and Successful Aging
Successful Aging in Japan: The Role of the Government Yasuhiko Saito and Vanessa Yong	81
Aging in New Zealand: Reimagining Issues, Frameworks, and Actors in a Post-development State Richard Le Heron	95
India's Support System for the Elderly: Myths and Realities K. S. James and T. S. Syamala	109

PART III*Changing Family Structures, Filial Networks, and Elderly Care

- Senior Citizens in Indonesia: Caregiving in Some International
Migrant-Sending Areas in West Java 129
Mita Noveria
- “Only-Child-Death” Family and Its Developing Trends under China’s Family Planning Policy 151
Wang Guangzhou
- Intergenerational Relationships between Aging Parents and their Adult Children in Malaysia 173
Khadijah Alavi
- Elderly People in Vietnam: Some Issues of Concern from Family and Gender Perspectives 195
Ngo Thi Tuan Dzung

PART IV*Rapidly Aging Societies: Opportunities and Challenges for the State and the Family

- Individuals, Families, and the State: Changing Responsibilities
in an Aging Australia 211
Hal Kendig and Nina Lucas
- Toward an Active Aging Society: The Pension Reform in Taiwan 225
Jen-Der Lue, Shao-hua Liu, and Shu-min Huang