Contents

Preface .............................................................................................................................. v
Notes on Contributors ................................................................................................. ix
Abbreviations ................................................................................................................ xi

Part I Introduction

1. Introduction ................................................................................................................3
   Ann Numhauser-Henning and Mia Rönmar

Part II Law as Normative Patterns and Other Theoretical Perspectives

2. Understanding Law as Normative Patterns in a Normative Field ......................27
   Ann Numhauser-Henning

3. Law Beyond Law .......................................................................................................53
   Kaarlo Tuori

4. The 'Autonomy' of Private Governments: Building on Italian
   Labour Law Scholarship in a Transnational Perspective ........................................65
   Silvana Sciarra

Part III Protection of Established Position and Normative Development

5. Protection of Established Position, Normative Incoherence and the Changing Normative Field of Labour Law .........................................79
   Niklas Bruun

6. Protection of Established Position, Social Protection and the Legal Situation of the Elderly in the European Union ............................95
   Mia Rönmar

7. Participation and Flexibility for All? A Study of Modern Family Structures and Children's Rights ..............................................................117
   Titti Mattsson

Part IV Market-Functionalism and Normative Development

8. Concepts of the Market in Labour Law .................................................................141
   Simon Deakin
Contents

   Per Norberg

10. Parenthood Meets Market-Functionalism: Parental Rights in the Labour Market and the Importance of the Gender Dimension........................................................................................................185
    Jenny Julén Votinius

Part V Just Distribution and Normative Development

    Judy Fudge

12. Changing Normative Patterns in Statutory Old-Age Pensions: Reflections on Developments Due to Pension Reform and EU Citizenship........................................................................................................237
    Thomas Erhag

13. Normative Patterns in the Context of Divorce in Sweden..................................................253
    Eva Ryrstedt

Index .......................................................................................................................................................267