

Table of Contents

Acknowledgements	xi
Introduction	1
(A) Context	1
(B) General Overview	2
(C) Definition of Permanent Establishment	10
(D) Today's Challenges	11
(E) Contents of This Study	22
CHAPTER 1
The Roots of International Tax Law and the Permanent Establishment Concept	23
§1.01 Origins of Double Taxation	23
§1.02 International Chamber of Commerce/Group of Technical Experts	32
§1.03 First Model Tax Conventions	34
§1.04 From the League of Nations First Drafts to the Post-war Models	38
CHAPTER 2
Historic Evolution of the Permanent Establishment Concept	49
§2.01 The Origin of the Concept of Permanent Establishment under Domestic Law	49
[A] General	49
[B] Luxembourg	50
§2.02 Use of the Permanent Establishment Concept in EU Law	56
[A] VAT	56
[B] EU Directives	60
[C] Common Consolidated Corporate Tax Base	60
[D] Impact of EU Law	62

CHAPTER 3
Recent Developments of the Concept of Permanent Establishment		63
§3.01	2000 E-Commerce Report: The First of Several	64
§3.02	Integration of Independent Professionals into the Article on Business Taxation	66
§3.03	2002 OECD Permanent Establishment Report	68
§3.04	E-commerce	76
	[A] Introduction	77
	[B] 2005 E-Commerce Report	80
	[C] Profit Allocation to a Permanent Establishment in the E-commerce World	95
	[D] Conclusion on E-commerce	98
§3.05	2008: Services Permanent Establishment	105
	[A] Introduction	106
	[B] Conditions for a Services PE	109
§3.06	Some Initial Thoughts	116
CHAPTER 4
The Geographical Location and the Basic Definition: The Physical PE		117
§4.01	General Conditions	118
	[A] Overlap of Various Permanent Establishment Concepts	118
	[B] Combination and Weighting of Several Conditions	120
§4.02	The Conditions for the Creation of a Physical Permanent Establishment	121
	[A] A Business Has to Exist	121
	[B] Existence of a Place of Business	123
	[C] Exercise of an Activity	127
	[D] The Place of Business Has to Be at the Disposal of the Enterprise	136
	[E] The Question Is Also whether a Permanent Establishment Has Actually to be ' Permanent '?	147
	[F] The Place of Business Has to Be a Fixed One	158
	[G] No Need for Personnel	170
	[H] Existence of Multiple Permanent Establishments	171
	[I] The Positive List of Article 5.2 OECD Model Convention	173
CHAPTER 5
Construction Permanent Establishments		179
§5.01	What Is a Construction Activity?	180
§5.02	Relationship between Articles 5.1 and 5.3 of the OECD Model Convention	186
§5.03	Supervision Activity and Sub-contracting	194

Table of Contents

§5.04	Link between Various Projects	196
§5.05	Duration Test	199
CHAPTER 6
	Preparatory or Auxiliary Activities	207
CHAPTER 7
	Agency Permanent Establishment	219
§7.01	Difference between the Civil Law and the Common Law Concepts of Representation	221
§7.02	Authority of the Agent	229
	[A] What Kind of Authority?	229
	[B] Habitual Exercise of the Authority	232
§7.03	Place of Residence or of Establishment of the Agent	233
§7.04	International Partnerships	234
§7.05	Salaried Agent/Legal Person	237
§7.06	Preparatory Activities	238
§7.07	Dependency of the Agent	238
§7.08	A Subsidiary as Agent of Its Parent?	247
§7.09	Particular Treatment of the Insurance Sector	252
CHAPTER 8
	Conclusion on the Territorial Location	255
§8.01	The Territorial Link Has Weakened over Time	256
§8.02	Legal Scholars	259
§8.03	The Various Conditions to Create a Physical Permanent Establishment are Linked	262
	[A] Link with the Disposal Test	263
	[1] Satellites	263
	[2] Consultants	264
	[3] Cab Drivers and Road Transportation Companies	266
	[4] Summary on the Link between Disposal and Geographic Location	268
	[B] Link with Permanence Test	271
§8.04	Specific Exceptions	272
	[A] Transportation	272
	[B] Artists and Sportsmen	273
	[C] Real Estate Activities: Rental Income	274
	[D] Agricultural Activities	275
	[E] Pipelines	275
	[F] Overview	278
§8.05	Several Activities Are by Nature Mobile	278

§8.06	A More Flexible Approach to the Geographic Criterion Would Have the Following Benefits	283
	[A] Reconciliation of Various Criteria	283
	[B] Taking Mobile and E-commerce Activities into Account	284
	[C] Maximising Source-Based Revenue	285
	[D] Arguments Given by the OECD Itself	285
CHAPTER 9
	Conclusion	291
APPENDIX
	Proposed changes to the Commentaries of Article 5	295
	Bibliography	301
	Discussion papers	315
	Case Law and Rulings	317
	Index	325