Contents

Foreword by John Borrows 9

Introduction 11
Treaty Interpretation and Implementation:
Entwined Disconnection

Part One: What Came Before Treaty One

Chapter One 20
Skilled Negotiators and Diplomats:
The Anishinabe and Indigenous, Fur Trade, and Crown Treaties

Chapter Two 37
Manito Api — this “Piece of Land”:
Treaty Making with the Indians of Manitoba

Part Two: Making the Stone Fort Treaty

Chapter Three 48
The Anishinabe at the Stone Fort:
The People that Belong to this Land

Chapter Four 66
Building on Stone Foundations:
Relationships and Protocols
Part Three: Anishinabe Inaakonigewin

Chapter Five 86

Gizhagiwin: The Queen's Obligations of Love, Caring, Kindness and Equality among her Children

Chapter Six 94

“The Land Cannot Speak for Itself”: Relationships To and About Land

Part Four: Living the Treaty

Chapter Seven 102

Implementing the Treaty: Outside Promises and Post-Treaty Disputes in the Immediate Post-Treaty Years

Conclusion 107

Re-kindling the Fire: Finding and Embracing the Spirit and Intent of Treaty One Today

Appendix 115

Treaty No. 1

Endnotes 120

Bibliography 143

Index 152