Chapter I. From West to East:
The First Written Sources ........................................... 19

Chapter II. The Upper Kapuas Area .......................... 35

Chapter III. The Upper Mahakam Area ....................... 45

Chapter IV. Forest Economics:
The Dayak and their Natural Resources ..................... 55

Chapter V. Social Organization in Borneo:
A General Overview .................................................. 67

Chapter VI. The Special Sibling-in-Law:
Kinship in the Müller Mountains ............................... 93

Chapter VII. Reconstructing Borneo’s Culture History:
The Relevance of the Forest Nomads ....................... 105

Chapter VIII. History and Myth among Borneo People .... 137

Chapter IX. How “Trades” Come into Being:
Ethnogenesis of the Aoheng .................................. 163

Chapter X. The Aoheng, the Gods, the Spirits, and Gender 195

Chapter XI. An Aoheng Purification Ritual .................. 199

Chapter XII. Aoheng Oral Literature:
A Typology .................................................................. 205

Chapter XIII. Stone and the Aoheng:
Investigation in Traditional Taxonomies ................. 213