

Table of Contents

Preface	vii
List of Contributors	xi
Table of Cases	xiii
Table of Legislation	xxix
Introduction	xlvii

Part 1. Developments in the Management of the Oceans

1. Somali Piracy – An Affront to International Law? Prof Malcolm Forster	3
2. Changing Perspectives on the High Seas Freedom of Navigation? Dr Andrew Serdy	23
3. Pollution of the Sea by Hazardous and Noxious Substances – Is a Workable International Convention on Compensation an Impossible Dream? Mr Richard Shaw	43
4. Compensation for Offshore Pollution: Ships and Platforms Prof Nick Gaskell	63
5. Shipping and the Marine Environment in the 21st Century Prof Mikis Tsimplis	95

Part 2. Developments in the Law Concerning Carriage of Goods and International Trade

6. Reflections on the Rotterdam Rules Regina Asariotis	131
7. Multimodal Transport Evolving: Freedom and Regulation Three Decades after the 1980 MTO Convention Mr Filippo Lorenzon	163
8. Incorporation of Charterparty Clauses into Bills of Lading: Peculiar to Maritime Law? Dr Melis Özdel	181
9. Certificate Final Clauses in International Trade: Some Recent Developments Mr Alexander Sandiforth	197

3. Developments in Marine Insurance, Jurisdiction and Enforcement

10. Thirty Years of Inherent Vice – From Soya v White to The Cendor 209
MOPU and beyond
Ms Johanna Hjalmarsson and Ms Jennifer Lavelle
11. Thirty Years of Europeanisation of Conflict of Laws and Still all at Sea? 237
Prof Y Baatz
- Index* 277