

Table of Contents

Transitions in Caribbean Law: An Introduction	vii
David S. Berry and Tracy Robinson
I. LAWMAKING IN THE CARIBBEAN	1
1. Fi We Law: The Emergence of Caribbean Jurisprudence and the Doctrine of Precedent	3
Leighton M. Jackson
2. Corporate Governance: One Size Fits All?	33
Suzanne Goldson
3. Expanding the Purview of Accountability in Employment by the State	51
Rose-Marie Antoine
4. More Questions Than Answers? Caribbean Jurisprudence on the Duty of Uberrimae Fides	76
Lesley A. Walcott
II. THE CONFLUENCE OF INTERNATIONAL AND DOMESTIC LAW	101
5. The Use of International Law by Domestic Tribunals in the Caribbean in Death Penalty Cases	103
David S. Berry
6. Legitimate Expectations, International Treaties and the Caribbean Court of Justice	128
Eddy D. Ventose

7. Human Trafficking Legislation in the Commonwealth Caribbean: Effective or Effected? Kamille Adair	148
III. THE HABITS OF CONSTITUTIONALISM	177
8. The Common Law and the Litigation of Fundamental Rights and Freedoms Before the Privy Council Margaret Demerieux	179
9. Judicial Independence as an Indispensable Feature of the Rule of Law and Democracy: Implications for the Commonwealth Caribbean Arif Bulkan	199
10. Constitutionalism in Belize: Lessons for the Commonwealth Caribbean? Godfrey P. Smith	225
11. Our Inherent Constitution Tracy Robinson	248
Contributors	277
Index	279