   S.S. Tarapore .................................................. 43

2. Transparency and Autonomy Issues in Monetary Policy
   K. Kanagasabapathy
   AND BALAMURALI RADHAKRISHNAN ..................... 65

3. Inflation, Macroeconomic Policy and Hunger: A Variation on a Theme by C. Rangarajan
   Raghbendra Jha ............................................. 89

4. From Growth to Inclusive Growth: The Current Challenges
   Joseph Massey ............................................. 105

5. Should Banking be made Boring?: An Indian Perspective
   Duvvuri Subbarao ........................................... 131

6. Efficiency, Productivity and Soundness of the Indian Banks: Recent Developments
   Y.V. Reddy AND SWAYAM PRAVA MISHRA .............. 149
7. Macroprudential Approach to Regulation: Scope and Issues
   SHYAMALA GOPINATH ........................................... 163

8. The Use of Composite Infrastructure Indices to Catalyse Infrastructure Development
   RAVI PARTHASARATHY ........................................... 183

9. Role of Financial Markets in Driving Financial Inclusion
   MADHU KANNAN .............................................. 199

10. Credit Markets and Financial Inclusion
    KARTIKEYA DESAI AND NITIN DESAI ......................... 213

11. Reinventing NABARD
    K.G. KARMAKAR ............................................. 229

12. Technology and the Financial Inclusion Imperative in India: Banking and Dr. Rangarajan—The Philosopher King
    K.C. CHAKRABARTY ........................................... 243

    UDAIBIR S. DAS ............................................. 253

    RAVI NARAIN ................................................ 279

15. Evolution of India’s Exchange Rate Regime
    ASHIMA GOYAL ................................................ 311

16. Indian Economy in the Global Meltdown
    KIRIT S. PARIKH ............................................ 331