CONTENTS

List of Tables and Figures vii

Foreword ix

Contributors xiii

Abbreviations xvii

Section I The 2006 Military Coup: Impact on the Thai Political Landscape
1. “Good Coup” Gone Bad: Thailand’s Political Developments since Thaksin’s Downfall 3
   Pavin Chachavalpongpun

2. Unfinished Business: The Contagion of Conflict over a Century of Thai Political Development 17
   Federico Ferrara

Section II Defending the Old Political Consensus: The Military and the Monarchy
   James Ockey

4. The Monarchy and Anti-Monarchy: Two Elephants in the Room of Thai Politics and the State of Denial 79
   Thongchai Winichakul
5. Freedom and Silencing under the Neo-Absolutist Monarchy Regime in Thailand, 2006–2011
   David Streckfuss

   Section III New Political Discourses and the Emergence of Yellows and Reds

6. “Vote No!": The PAD’s Decline from Powerful Movement to Political Sect?
   Michael H. Nelson
   141

7. The Red Shirts: From Anti-Coup Protesters to Social Mass Movement
   Nick Nostitz
   170

8. Is Peasant Politics in Thailand Civil?
   Andrew Walker
   199

   Section IV Crises of Legitimacy

9. Reaping the Whirlwind: Thailand’s Coup and the Southern Problem
   Marc Askew
   219

10. From Marketplace Back to Battlefield: Thai-Cambodian Relations in the Age of a Militarized Politics
    Pavin Chachavalpongpun
    253

   Index
   283