

Summary of Contents

List of Editor and Contributors	v
Preface	xxiii
Acknowledgements	xxv
CHAPTER 1
Occupational Health and Safety: An EU Law Perspective Berta Valdés de la Vega	1
CHAPTER 2
Occupational Health and Safety in Austria: 'The Labour Inspectorate Is Watching You' Elisabeth Kohlbacher and Franz Marhold	29
CHAPTER 3
Well-Being at Work in Belgium: A Matter of Co-operation F. Dorssemont, K. Naert and A. Van Regenmortel	67
CHAPTER 4
Occupational Health and Safety in France: A Good Formal Protection, but a Problematic Efficiency Corinne Sachs-Durand	99
CHAPTER 5
Occupational Health and Safety in Germany: A Dual System in Change Olaf Deinert	127

Summary of Contents

---

CHAPTER 6

Occupational Health and Safety in Hungary: Changes in the Name of Competitiveness?

Erika Kovács

151

CHAPTER 7

Italy: From Occupational Health and Safety to Well-being at Work

Edoardo Ales, Luca Miranda and Alessia Giurini

195

CHAPTER 8

Occupational Health and Safety in Spain: A Formidable Array of Employers' Liabilities

Joaquín Aparicio Tovar

249

CHAPTER 9

Occupational Health and Safety in a Diverse, Post-Industrial Society: A Swedish Dilemma

Maria Steinberg

281

CHAPTER 10

Occupational Health and Safety in the Netherlands: A Shift of Responsibilities

Teun Jaspers and Frans Pennings

329

CHAPTER 11

Occupational Health and Safety in the UK: At a Crossroads?

Mark Bell

375

CHAPTER 12

Occupational Health and Safety: A Comparative Perspective

Edoardo Ales

411