Contents

Dedication ................................................................. v
Author details ........................................................... viii
Acronyms and abbreviations .......................................... x
Introduction ............................................................... xi

International Perspectives

Chapter 1 – International labour standards: A complex public-private policy mix
*by Manfred Weiss......................................................... 3

Chapter 2 – International labour and social security standards:
A developing country critique*
*by Marius Olivier........................................................ 14

Chapter 3 – The Social Protection Floors Recommendation 2012
(No 202): The human rights approach to social security in ILO wrapping paper
*by Gijsbert Vonk........................................................ 29

Regional Perspectives

Chapter 4 – The still complex relationship between the ILO and the EU:
The example of anti-discrimination law*
*by Achim Seifert.......................................................... 45

Chapter 5 – Co-ordination of social security schemes: The case of SADC
*by Ockert Dupper & Marius Olivier........................................ 69

Chapter 6 – The challenge of regional social security co-ordination:
The case of the Ibero-American Multilateral Agreement
*by Pablo Arellano Ortiz.................................................. 99

Chapter 7 – Social security, gender and legal plurality: Challenges to harmonisation in SADC*
*by Nguye Ruth Kanyongolo.............................................. 110

Chapter 8 – The failure of the Minimum Age Convention to eradicate child labour in developing countries, with particular reference to SADC*
*by Karin Calitz............................................................ 125

Chapter 9 – Children’s rights and child labour from a global, African and SADC law perspective
*by Oliver C Ruppel......................................................... 141

Chapter 10 – EU health and safety law: Improving standards for young workers
*by Natalie van der Waarden............................................. 161
Contents

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>National Perspectives</th>
<th>vii</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>
| Chapter 11 – Retirement reform in South Africa: The influence of international social security standards and human rights instruments*
by Kitty Mahlberbe | 179 |
| Chapter 12 – Protective or disruptive social security? Burial societies in Ethiopia and Zimbabwe by Gift Dafuleya | 201 |
| Chapter 13 – The role of international and regional standards in the development of an appropriate rehabilitation, reintegration and return-to-work policy framework in South Africa
by Avinash Govindjee, Marius Olivier, Mathias Nyenti | 216 |
| Chapter 14 – Labour standards & foreign direct investment in SADC: A case study of Malawi
by Rumbani Jere | 239 |
| Chapter 15 – Social assistance and the right to social security: The case of Zimbabwe
by Edwin Kaseke | 257 |
| Chapter 16 – Pre-dismissal procedures in terms of ILO Convention 158: South African and comparative perspectives
by Paul Andries Smit | 267 |
| Chapter 17 – Reforming the South African social security adjudication system: The role and impact of international and regional standards
by Mathias Nyenti, Marius Olivier, Avinash Govindjee | 287 |
| Chapter 18 – Learnerships and internships: Relations of employment or learning?
by Sylvia Hammond, Paul Bowen, Keith Cattell, Evance Kalula | 305 |

---

* This chapter has been published in The International Journal of Comparative Labour Law and Industrial Relations (Kluwer) 2013 (29) Issue 1.

 This chapter has been published in the International Journal of Social Security and Workers Compensation (Curtin) 2012 (4).