

Contents

List of contributors	vii
Preface	ix
1 Overview Jerry W. Markham	1
2 The definition of “security” under the federal securities laws Arthur B. Laby	12
3 The integrated disclosure system Rigers Gjyshi	47
4 Exemptions from 1933 Act registration Thomas L. Hazen	109
5 The underwriting process and secondary distributions Zachary J. Gubler	156
6 Secondary markets Roel C. Campos and Marlon Q. Paz	185
7 The rise of risk-based regulatory capital: liquidity and solvency standards for financial intermediaries José Gabilondo	201
8 Investment adviser regulation Wulf A. Kaal	228
9 Corporate governance and the regulation of mergers and acquisitions Jerry W. Markham and Rigers Gjyshi	244
10 The Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002: a regulatory hodge-podge arising from highly visible financial fraud Joan MacLeod Heminway	282
11 Regulation of derivative instruments Jerry W. Markham	316
12 An overview of compliance-related issues in broker-dealer regulation James Fanto	348
13 Fraud, manipulation and other prohibited practices Jerry W. Markham	378

vi	Research handbook on securities regulation in the United States
14	The past, present and future of securities arbitration between customers and brokerage firms Barbara Black	412
15	Private rights of action under U.S. securities laws: key differences between litigation and arbitration of securities disputes, limited right of action against investment advisers, and the uncertain future of class litigation Leslie A. Blau, Mark Liston, and Peter Evans	457
16	Comparative analysis of global securities regulation Jerry W. Markham	488
	Index	517